JEWELERS

1150 Commercial St. Astoria, OR
503-325-8029

Holly McHone Jewelers has been building custom jewelry since 1998. We've been located in Astoria's downtown since 2004. Holly McHone is a Designer/ Goldsmith with a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree. She spends much of her time fulfilling the dreams of her customers with original designs. We specialize in diamonds and Holly travels twice a year to Antwerp, Belgium to find the best diamonds for the store.

Kevin McHone left Intel in 2001 to join Holly McHone Jewelers full time and brought technology to the business. We use Computer Aided Design and Manufacture (CAD/CAM), a laser welder, a 4-axis engraving machine, and most recently a 3D printer. We can do virtually any job and our goal is to say to everyone, "Yes! We can do that!".

Recently we completed a remodel of our store to better support the needs of our customers for the years to come. And we have a new greeter named Finn who joined us just this year and he really loves his job!

Come see what we can do for you!

In 1996, Denele began teaching dance to three students in a small garage Seaside. The popularity of her classes grew rapidly and Encore Dance Studio was established. In 2009, Denele opened a second studio in Warrenton. Encore Dance Studio offers 70 classes per week in two locations and home to an Performing Arts Preschool, an innovative learning experience that also prepares children academically and socially for entering school. Encore's diverse and talented instructors make for an outstanding experience for children and adults of all ages. This fall we embark on our 20th Anniversary Celebration season!

Denele began her dancing career at the tiny age of 2½. She grew up training with Portland's best, Lynn Johnson-Wiltshire, Sally Mack, Vicki Mills, and Debbie Pierce. She was professionally educated and trained in Tap, Jazz, Ballet, Pointe, Hawaiian, Gymnastics, and Ballroom Dancing. Denele continues to participate in dance seminars and conventions bringing fresh perspectives to dance education.

From the age of 8, Denele began competitive ballroom dancing and competed all over the Northwest and Canada. Her ballet training and desire to be on stage, landed her a role with Ballet West for their performances of the Nutcracker at the Keller Auditorium.

Enjoying her time as Head Coach of the award winning Seaside Sapphire's dance team (2012-13); Denele founded the cheerleading program at Seaside High School in 2009 and volunteered as the coach until 2013. Denele also produced the Miss Clatsop County Program and was the Contestant Choreographer for the Miss Oregon programs from 1996 to 2007.

"It is with gratitude, everyday, that I get to do what I love and share a talent that makes me and so many others smile. I look forward to dancing with the students and teachers at Encore for many more years to come." Thank you!
