Action heats up in 'The Coast'

WARRENTON — Some of the top matches were going right down to the wire Thursday afternoon, in the 106th annual Oregon Coast Invitational.

And it's all making for an exciting final two days of the tournament at the Astoria Golf & Country Club.

Golfers are nearing the finish line of "The Coast," and there's a few locals who are still in the running.

In the Women's division, Katie Sturgell took one step closer to the finals in the Championship Flight, as the 29-year-old Astorian edged Hillary McNeill in Thursday's quarter-final, by a 3&2 count.

In the Grand Champions division, Kenneth Sheldon — the Ilwaco High School graduate who just completed his freshman year at Willamette University — is looking to become the second straight Ilwaco graduate to win the Invitational's Grand Championship, following Jack Whealdon's win last year.

Sheldon will be matched against Grand Champion medalist Riley Elmes in one of today's semifinals, with Mike Fritz facing Anthony Arvidson in the other half of the Final Four.

Meanwhile, Sturgell is riding a wave of momentum, after winning the Astoria Women's Club Championship earlier this month.

She will face Cappy Mack in a semifinal today.

"I'm ready for this," Sturgell said. "I'm hitting the ball better than I ever have. My long game is great, and my short game is getting better. I made some good putts today."

She won her match, she said, "with my sand shots. To be honest, my highlight shots were mostly bunker shots. I almost holed one out on nine, I had a good one on 12 and an even better one on 14."

Sturgell held a slim lead over McNeill for most of the round (2-up after 10 holes, 1-up after 11), before going 2-up after 15, then winning on the 16th hole to close out the match.

"I had a bad hole on 11, but then my kids showed up, I won 12, and it was all good after that," she said.

"I'm holding up well," said Sturgell, who recently lost her mother Darylene to cancer. "After I won on 16, I wanted to call her so much. I miss those texts and phone calls. This has been a super-emotional time for me."

The other half of the Women's Final Four will feature three-time champion Amanda Jacobs vs. Terry Mattson.

The Women's semifinalists tee off at 1:26 p.m. today.

In other quarterfinal action Thursday, winners in the Championship Flight of the Seniors division included Bill Bristol, Patrick Regan, Bob Knutsen and Jamie Ihander.

The Final Four in the Super Seniors Championship Flight will be Mike Graham, Larry Wobbrock, David Vistica and John Lewis.

Action continues today and ends Saturday at the Astoria Golf & Country Club.
