GEARHART — The next Gearhart ArtWalk will take place from 2 to 5 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 6. Merchants and galleries provide fun, imagination and art.

A Great Gallery

576 Pacific Way

Whether it's an original pastel, a metal print, wine bag, canvas wrap, pillow or clock, A Great Gallery has something for all. Come and see the gallery's new line of gifts all made with gallery owner Susan Thompson's original images. Pet portrait artist Deanne Johnson will also be featured.

Johnson is a specialist in pastel pet portraiture and a lover of animals; bring your pet to meet her. Refreshments and chocolate will be served.

lage necklaces. Thurlby's theme for art is "What part of whimsical don't you understand?" She loves collecting found objects and incorporating them. Refreshments will be served.

726 Pacific Way
Pacific Crest Cottage will host "Tumbled and Twisted," a jewelry collection by designer Lisa Lynch that uses local, up-cycled and eco-friendly elements. Lynch celebrates Northwest culture and clean ecosystems by combining stone, beach glass and metal resulting in enchanting and inspired art to wear.

Trail's End Art Association

656 A St.

See small watercolors by Linda Gebhart as well as work of other Trail's End members. Gebhart focuses on North Coast landscapes. "The seascapes continue to call me as I live near the ocean and am able to work in the open, plein air, or from my many photos taken on beach walks," she says. "Because I like to work on small pieces, my favorite part is being able to see the fruits of my labor in as little as 15 minutes."
