Become an artist-in-residence with Astoria Visual Arts

ASTORIA — Astoria Visual Arts Artists-in-Residence program (AVA a-i-r) seeks applications from local artists interested in the next residency, which will run Oct. 1 to Dec. 31.

The deadline for application is Sept. 5. Artists will be notified of their selection by Sept. 12.

Residency finalists (currently limited to locally based visual artists) are chosen on the basis of artistic merit by an independent blind selection panel of working professionals in the arts and arts patrons. The selected artists are provided with one of two studios available in the Astoria Downtown Historic District free of charge for a three-month residency period.

Artists who have applied in the past are encouraged to reapply with an updated portfolio and statement reflecting updates and changes.

AVA a-i-r is designed to encourage the creative, intellectual and professional growth of emerging artists. While no exhibition, publication or performance is required of the selected artist, community responsibility includes weekend open studio events during the Second Saturday Art Walk at least twice during the a-i-r session. For residency details, application guidelines and to apply online, visit www.astoriavisualarts.org/ava-a-i-r.html

AVA was founded in 1989 as a non-profit membership organization to enhance, strengthen and promote the arts in the greater Astoria area. AVA a-i-r is supported by dues and contributions from the members of Astoria Visual Arts and sponsored in part by Albatross & Co., Astoria Coffee House & Bistro, Astoria Co-op Grocery, City Lumber Company, Dots 'N Doodles Art Supplies and Fort George Brewery.

Clatskanie ballroom displays quilt show

CLATSKANIE— "Quilting in the Ballroom" is the theme for the 2016 Clatskanie Quilt Show.

Taking place 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Friday and Saturday, Aug. 5 and 6, the show will be located in the second floor ballroom of the Clatskanie Cultural Center, the former I.O.O.F. building, located at 75 S. Nehalem St.

Sponsored by many local businesses, the show will offer a quilter's delight raffle, a country store, a shop hop at participating businesses and more.

Admission is $2 per person, and organizers will also collect non-perishable food for the local food bank.

For more information and quilt show registration forms, contact clatskaniequiltshow@wildblue.net
