Guild Mortgage raises $43,000 for local nonprofits

The Daily Astorian

On July 15, the Lake Oswego Branch of Guild Mortgage put on their fourth annual Cast & Blast charity event in Astoria. Participants enjoyed a day filled with adventure and fun, all while raising money for local nonprofit organizations Veterans Sportsman Alliance, an organization making a real difference in the lives of injured and disabled veterans, and First Story, a program serving individuals and families in need through new home construction and other home ownership opportunities.

Guests were greeted in the early morning as 26 boats left the docks for guided sturgeon fishing. Catch sizes of the day ranged from 3 to 10.5 feet, while the afternoon was filled with skeet shooting, a silent auction, casino night games, and several raffles. One lucky guest won a trip to Italy as part of a Golden Ticket raffle.

During dinner, a live auction took place, where some of the high ticketed items included an Argentina Dove Hunt, a California Boar hunt, a wine connoisseur's trip to Walla Walla, Washington, and a Pick Your Beach Destination trip. The night capped off with a casino night, where guests played blackjack, craps, and roulette.

Over the course of the day, $43,000 was raised and donated to the VSA and First Story.
