FIRST SATURDAY

ART WALK

Sept.

5 to 7 p.m.

SEASIDE — The Seaside First Saturday Art Walk, celebrating 12 years in 2016, is all about the arts. Visitors walk about, meet artists, sip wine or snag appetizers, view artist demonstrations, listen to an artist talk or enjoy live performances in music. The next art walk is from 5 to 7 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 3 at galleries located in the historic Gilbert District of downtown Seaside.

SunRose Gallery

606 Broadway

The gallery will showcase new works from several favorite artists: sand dollar mosaics of seabirds by Mimi Cernyar Fox, felted collages and resin art jewelry by Robin Montero, whimsical mermaid paintings by Patty Thurlby, miniature oil paintings by Bill Vlek, and broken china mosaics in the French tradition by SunRose owner and artist Cathy Tippin.

Fairweather House & Gallery

612 Broadway

Fairweather will host an opening reception for the exhibit "Against the Current." Pieces in the art show use materials and images in unusual ways, urging viewers to look beyond the ordinary.

Artist Agnes Field's mixed-media paintings use materials from her surroundings, such as cardboard, wood and fabric. The artworks attempt to create intrinsic objects that minimize the boundary between everyday experience and the commercialization of products. North Coast photographer Don Frank creates varied colorful imagery. Fire Mountain School teacher Sarah Lippold is intrigued with replicating imagery without the use of technology. She began studying printmaking in 2004 and considers her prints as colorful snapshots of memory.

local habitat at 6 p.m. Paul Brent will offer a live painting demonstration. Summertime beverages, light refreshments and live music by Shirley 88 will be offered.

Moxie

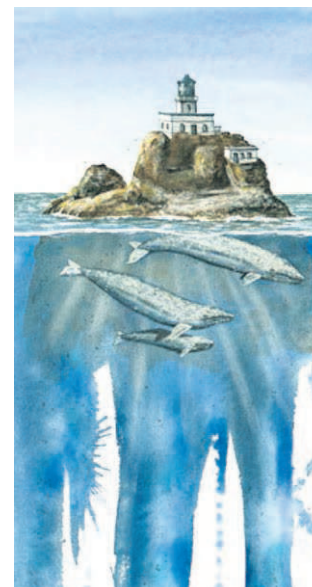

609 Broadway

Moxie's new shop in Seaside opened in June and is filled with the eclectic, from exclusive jewelry to handmade art and fair trade clothing. The store, with its first location in Manzanita, is an established member of the Fair Trade Federation.

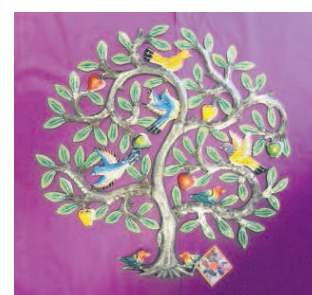

The Gilbert District Gallery

613 Broadway

The 12-year-old gallery is a co-op shared by artists from Washington and Oregon, including Dave Bartholet, Mike Sage, Thomas McNeill, Steven Bash, Don Nisbett, Jennie Truitt, Ian Ricker, Jan Van Dyke, Don Dye, Ken Hurley, Nancy Loukkula, Jim Ballamn and Justan Elk Artworks. Find watercolors, bronzes, giclees, Native American jewelry, oil paints, greeting cards and gifts.

Beach Books

616 Broadway

Discover the many riches of red at "Red Hot," a series of paintings by Barbara Martin that explore the dynamic hue. See fiery reds of roses, sunsets and foliage; the earthiness of rust and clay; and the juicy red of ripe berries. Which red speaks to you?

Descended from a line of story tellers and herbalists and raised an international nomad, Martin now calls Oregon home. From early childhood's finger paint and mud pies, then through garden design and now the alchemy of mixed-media paintings, Martin finds that the primeval speaks through her fingers.

degenerative eye disease, Lutz continues expressing his philosophy through his art.

Seaside Coffee House

3 N. Holladay Drive

Seaside Coffee House will feature work by Marcus Lundell, an artist who uses a traditional reverse glass painting technique on distressed windows and picture frames. His window views include classic landscapes and comedic characters — sometimes juxtaposed in the same scene. Proceeds benefit the Wildlife Center of the North Coast.
