Artists show new work

LONG BEACH, Wash. — Local artists Jean Nitzel and Kathryn Murdock will show their newest artwork at The Cove restaurant at the Peninsula Golf Course, located at 9604 Pacific Ave.

The art show opens with an artist reception from 5:30 to 8 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 14. The public is invited, and there will be light refreshments and a no host wine and beer bar.

Murdock has studied and traveled with watercolorist Eric Weigardt extensively in Europe and Hawaii. Her love of nature comes through in her artwork and her use of vibrant color.

Nitzel owns and operates the Picture Attic in Long

Admire classic cars at Wheels and Waves

SEASIDE — This weekend promises a step back in time and good fun for auto buffs. The annual Wheels and Waves car show is up and running in downtown Seaside Thursday through Sunday, Sept. 8 to 11.

The event was launched in 1998 and was called Hot Rod Happenings; the name was changed in 2005. Participants come from as far away as Florida, Canada, Washington, Idaho and California. All the cars are show-quality vehicles from 1965 or older.

Spectators are invited to talk with car owners and take photos of the cars lined along the streets of downtown Seaside for free from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. Friday and Saturday and from 9 a.m. to noon Sunday. Broadway west to the Turnaround will be closed to vehicle and open for foot traffic only for a portion of this event.

Thursday will see the Coastline Poker Run from noon to 4 p.m. (also on Friday). Route details will be available at check-in; this event is for registered car participants only.

participants and residents of Seaside. Approximately 70 hot rods will start at the Seaside Outlet Mall and cruise through town to three retirement facilities. Leisure Time Camp Ground will mark the end of the tour with a barbecue for the car participants. Residents can visit and look at the cars of the past.

From 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday, you can visit the Show & Shine. Registered vehicles will be parked along Broadway, side streets and in the City Center parking lot. This event is open to the public. Car show participants can also take part in a Poker Walk from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

There will be a Welcome Party from 6 to 8 p.m. Friday at the Seaside Convention Center. Dinner is provided for each registered participant and one guest. Registered participants may purchase additional tickets for $10 each at check-in. Dinner will be served until 7 p.m. The party will also feature a drawing to benefit the Seaside Food Bank, with prizes donated by NAPA and local merchants.

The Show & Shine repeats 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday — check out those classic hot rods and enjoy live music in the streets. A downtown Treasure Hunt from will be available to registered participants only; pick up route details at check-in. Vendor Alley is open 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Edgewood Avenue. Then, watch the cars in the Downtown Cruise on Broadway from 5 to 5:45 p.m. The street will be open to general traffic immediately following the cruise.

On Sunday, the Show & Shine will line Broadway again from 7 a.m. to 2 p.m. for people to peruse registered vehicles and talk with car owners. The Awards Presentation will be held at noon at the Seaside Convention Center.
