

Help build a trail in the Tillamook State Forest

TIMBER — On Saturday, Sept. 17, the Tillamook Burn Trail Run and the Oregon Department of Forestry will host a Trail Construction Work Party and optional group run at Reehers Camp in the Tillamook State Forest.

Volunteers are invited to meet up from 9:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Reehers Camp day-use parking area for a fun half-day of trail building. The work will focus on the Step Creek Loop Trail, a trail open to horses, hikers and mountain bikers.

Bring long pants, gloves, a lunch, and either your singing voice or best summer stories for the trail. Tools and training will be provided.

Volunteers are asked to RSVP so enough tools will be made available. RSVP at the event on Facebook (tinnyurl.com/reeherstrailworkday) or contact Roger Warren at 503-359-7466 or Roger.Warren@oregon.gov

There will be an optional group run before the trail work at 8:30 a.m. starting from Reehers Camp day-use parking lot. The Tillamook Burn Trail Run is a running event planned for April 29 and 30, 2017, offering a 50-mile run and 50K run on the trails through the Tillamook State Forest. For more information, visit runtheburn.com

Reehers Camp is the site of several trailheads, including Step Creek Loop Trail, Triple C Loop Trail and Gales Creek Trail. It's also the site of a recreational campground with 10 equestrian campsites, six sites for family camping, and a large day-use parking area.

The camp was once the site of barracks for U.S. Civilian Conservation Corps crews who worked on roads and trails in the area after the Tillamook Burn, a series of forest fires from 1933 to 1951 that consumed 355,000 acres of old-growth forest.

Reehers Camp has a toilet and potable water; there is no day-use fee.

From the U.S. 101 and U.S. 26 junction south of Seaside, drive east on U.S. 26 for about 43 miles. Turn south on Timber Road and drive 3.1 miles to the town of Timber. Turn right onto Cochran Road, and drive 2.5 miles (After 0.6 miles, it will become a gravel road.). Just past the turnoff for Reehers Campground, turn left into the large Reehers Camp Trailhead parking area.

Three for Silver to play at McMenamins Sand Trap

GEARHART — Portland trio Three For Silver will perform from 7 to 10 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 15 at the McMenamins Sand Trap Pub, located at 1157 N. Marion Ave. The show is free and open to all ages.

Three For Silver represents a curious hybrid of acoustic music. The twin melodies of Willo Sertain's smooth vocals and Greg Allison's violin glide atop of chugging polyrhythms of Lucas Warford's homemade bass instruments and the idiosyncratic style in which they are played.

Three For Silver evoke a timeless sense of mystery, singing songs of prophecies, drunken rambles, ancient kings and heartbreaks.

Described by Baby Gramps as "the acid baby of Tom Waits and Vicgtor Wooten," Three For Silver combines a gritty aesthetic, world-folk traditions, and virtuosic technique with a modern songwriting sense.
