

POINT of view

THE DAILY ASTORIAN // QUESTION OF THE WEEK

"Will you be watching the presidential debates, or have you already made up your mind?"

"I've watched a portion of them. I've made up my mind, but I'm not satisfied with either of them."

Bev Shaw, Portland

"I will be traveling, so I won't be watching them — but I would be watching if I was home. And yes, I've made up my mind."

Chris Shaw, Portland

"Honestly, I won't watch it. I think the choice has already been made. I think we're screwed, no matter what. This is the worst election year I've ever seen."

Melissa Coberly, Astoria

OBITUARY

Donald William Hanthorn

Jewell

March 27, 1931 — Sept. 18, 2016

A longtime resident of Jewell, Donald "Don" William Hanthorn passed away peacefully Sept. 18, 2016, at his home with his family near by.

Don was born in Indianola, Nebraska, to Leonard "Buck" and Barbara Hanthorn. At age 11, he moved with his family to Elsie, Oregon. He attended school in Elsie, and later graduated from Jewell High School in 1948. After school, he started working in the woods as a logger, the occupation he loved.

Don married Patricia Konzich in 1951, a loyal marriage of 65 years. They raised three children: Barbara, Diane and Robert.

Don and his father Buck formed Hanthorn Logging Co. in 1953. They worked together until 1971, when Buck retired. Don continued logging, and in 1977 his son Bob joined him. They formed Hanthorn Logging Inc., and worked together until Don's retirement in 2004.

Don and Pat loved having family and friends stop for coffee and BS around the kitchen table. Many logging shows were carried out, and thousands of gallons of coffee were consumed, and maybe a few cocktails.

Don is survived by his loving wife Patricia; their children, Barbara Olstedt, Diane Lucia and Bob Hanthorn; nine grandchildren, Amy, Matt, Mark, Dan, Michael, Nina, Edward, Amanda and Scott; 13 great-grandchildren; two sisters, Catherine Twombly and Shirley Morgan; and several nieces and nephews.

Don is preceded in death by his parents, Buck and Barbara Hanthorn; and sisters, Barbara Hanthorn and Helena Reirson.

Services will be held Friday, Sept. 23 at Our Lady of Victory Catholic Church in Seaside. Rosary is at 10:30 a.m., and the funeral is at 11 a.m. Graveside services will be held at the Elsie Cemetery at 1 p.m. A reception will be held at Camp 18 following graveside ceremony.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Camp 18 Loggers Memorial, P.O. Box 615, Clatskanie, OR 97016 and/or Lower Columbia Hospice, 2111 Exchange, Astoria, OR 97103.

SeaPort Airlines will be liquidated, fleet grounded

Associated Press

PORTLAND — Portland-based SeaPort Airlines, which once had service from Astoria, has grounded flights as it faces bankruptcy liquidation.

The Oregonian reported a judge on Tuesday ordered the airline's Chapter 11 bankruptcy to be converted to a Chapter 7 liquidation effective Wednesday.

SeaPort provided air service between Astoria Regional Airport and Portland or Newport in the spring of 2008 to 2010.

The airline's attempt to reorganize buckled this month after the airline learned it would lose a key contract and a line of credit helping keep it afloat.

An attorney for the airline's creditors said the fleet would be grounded. A Portland International Airport spokeswoman confirmed SeaPort would cease operations. A spokeswoman for the airline couldn't be immediately reached.

SeaPort, which primarily operates out of its Portland and Memphis hubs, filed for Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection in February.

County unemployment rate climbs slightly in August

The Daily Astorian

Clatsop County's seasonally adjusted unemployment rate was 5.4 percent in August, up 0.3 percent from the previous month but down 0.3 percent from the year prior, according to the state Employment Department. The county had the same unemployment rate as the state, and was one-half percent higher than the national rate.

The county expected to lose 50 jobs in August, but ultimately lost 140. That left non-farm payroll employment at 17,970, 440 more than a year before, for a growth rate of 2.4 percent.

In August, the private sector shed 90 jobs, and the government another 50. Food services and drinking places were the only significant points of growth, adding 30 jobs. Food manufacturing trimmed 40 jobs. Accommodations cut 40. Local government education fell by 50 jobs over the month.

Columbia County's seasonally adjusted unemployment rate was 6.7 percent in August, up 0.3 percent from the previous month but down 0.6 percent from the year prior.

Tillamook County, meanwhile, had a seasonally adjusted unemployment rate in August of 5.6 percent, up 0.3 percent from the previous month but down 0.3 percent from a year prior.
