

OBITUARIES

Katherine Anne (Loukas) Stenblom

Astoria

July 21, 1947 — Sept. 15, 2016

Katherine Anne Loukas was born July 21, 1947, to William and Patricia Loukas. Kathy grew up in Astoria and attended Astoria High School, graduating in 1965. Following graduation, Kathy attended business school.

On Dec. 2, 1966, she married Richard Stenblom. Kathy was lucky enough to stay home and raise two wonderful sons, Mark and Michael, working to provide a home away from home for the boys' group of friends.

When her sons were grown, Kathy went to work for the Clatsop County Sheriff's Office until her retirement in 2008. She was very proud to work as a support to law enforcement, and enjoyed getting to know the officers and their families.

Kathy lived a full and rewarding life, surrounded by family and friends. In her younger years, she enjoyed a great passion for salmon and sturgeon fishing, as well as four-wheeling with her family at Sand Lake. She loved spending time with family, cooking, gardening, watching sports and classic cars — especially the 1966 Corvette Dick gave her in honor of their wedding anniversary.

Kathy often welcomed friends and family into her home, and was a wonderful cook and host. She enjoyed meeting friends for lunch, and was an active member of Beta Sigma Phi for over 40 years. She enjoyed traveling and countless vacations in Mazatlan, Mexico. An animal lover all her life, Kathy developed a very special place in her heart and found joy in spending time with her dog Bob.

Kathy loved her grandsons Ryan and Bailey dearly, treasuring every minute she spent with them, having them over often and taking them on excursions. She loved attending their school and sports activities. She loved watching them grow up into wonderful young men.

Katherine was preceded in death by her parents; aunt and uncles; sister Karen Morris; and niece Stephanie Johnston. She is survived by her loving husband, Richard, of Astoria; sons Mark (Susan) and Mike (Brenna) and grandsons Ryan and Bailey; aunt Niami Koskelo; sister-in-law Nancy Young (John); nephew Matthew Lane (Jennifer); great-niece Shayna Johnston; cousins Jeanne Morris, Lynda Campbell (Steve) and Doug Parker; and special family friend, Troy Basel (Kerith).

A celebration of life will be held on Saturday, Sept. 24, at 12 p.m., at Peace Lutheran Church, with a potluck gathering to follow at the Astoria Elks.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in Kathy's name to Astoria High School athletics.

Hughes-Ransom Cremation & Mortuary in Astoria is in charge of the arrangements. Visit www.hughes-ransom.com to share memories and sign the guest book.

Carol June O'Donovan

Seaside

Oct. 11, 1943 — Sept. 18, 2016

Carol June Daniels was born in Portland, Oregon, on Oct. 11, 1943, to Mildred and Harold Daniels. She grew up in Portland, Oregon, attending Peninsula Elementary and graduating in 1961 from Roosevelt High School. Carol attended Portland State University.

She started her working career at the FBI, applying for a job at the age of 19 and returning daily to sit in the lobby until they finally offered her a position. She was the first person in Oregon to hear about the assassination of John F. Kennedy via the FBI's teletype machine.

Carol married Patrick Green. They had two children, Jerry Michael Green (1964) and Jennifer Michelle Green (1966). Carol and Pat moved to Seaside, Oregon, soon after the birth of their daughter, where Carol began her involvement in the local community. As life goes, Carol and Pat parted ways, and in 1975 Carol met and fell in love with Dr. John E. O'Donovan (Doc).

Carol was a bright, savvy businesswoman with a strong, open heart and a wonderful sense of humor. These qualities made her a success in the business world and a champion in the community. She successfully built and managed the O'Donovan Clinic and Emergency Care Facility, and together with her husband, Doc, opened Serenity by the Sea, an alcohol and drug treatment facility in Seaside.

In 1977 Carol was instrumental in securing the necessary votes to approve the build of the Seaside pool. She then worked endlessly to ensure it was landscaped and open and running properly. She was a strong advocate for community programs, insisting they were accessible to children of disabilities and those struggling with poverty. When Carol took a stand she was the heart and soul of that stand, which made her all the more a community champion.

Carol volunteered for several years with the Ms. Oregon Pageant, and served as member and eventual president of the local Soroptimist club, a volunteer organization of professional women. In later years, when Doc developed Alzheimer's disease, Carol researched an alternative to state-run facilities and, realizing there was nothing that provided the care and compassion Doc deserved, she opened her own care facility, Doc's Place, focusing on Alzheimer's and dementia. She cared for Doc and others until his death in 2002.

Carol was never one to sit idle, and with time on her hands she rejoined Sunset Empire Park & Recreation District as an elected member of the board of directors. Her activity and enthusiasm for district activities and ensuring that the district mission was delivered was often an example to other board members and staff.

She assisted in numerous special events and task forces as a result of her service on the board. Those opportunities included helping with the Sunset Park & Recreation Foundation's event, "A Sweet Affaire," and most recently on the Sunset Empire Park & Recreation District Scholarship Task Force. Carol served two different times as the board vice-chairwoman, and that was her position at the time of her passing.

Carol was an enthusiastic University of Oregon Ducks football fan, a devoted friend, a 35-year member of the legendary Birthday Club, and a most dedicated and loving grandmother. She loved her grandchildren dearly, and often said the best part about having kids was the grandkids.

Carol is survived by her siblings, Martin of Medford, Oregon, JoEllen of Vancouver, Washington, Norman, also of Vancouver, and David of Redmond, Oregon; her children, Jerry Green of Oregon City and Jenni Miller of Portland, Oregon; and her five lovely grandchildren, Tim, Tyler, Austin, Dylan and Lily.

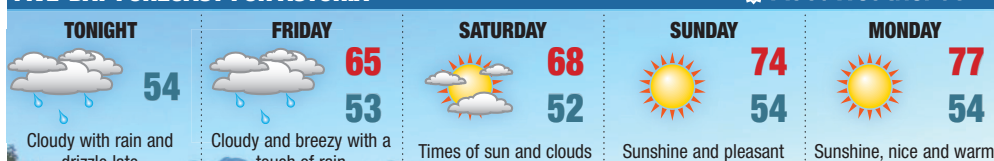

A celebration of life will be held on Sunday, Sept. 25, at 1 p.m. at the Bob Chisholm Community Center, 1225 Avenue A in Seaside, Oregon.

Contributions in Carol's memory can be made to the following organizations: the Seaside Empire Parks and Recreation Center in Seaside, Oregon, or the Northminster Presbyterian Church in Portland, Oregon.

Arts Council seeking applicants

The Daily Astorian

Applications are being sought for a vacancy on the Arts Council of Clatsop County.

The arts council is open to county residents or property owners, or those who own a business or rent studio space in the county.

The volunteer citizen committee's mission is to support, promote and advocate for the arts in Clatsop County.

Applications are available online at www.co.clat sop.or.us, at the Clatsop County Manager's Office at 800 Exchange St., Suite 410 in Astoria or by calling (503) 325-1000.

The appointment will be made by the county Board of Commissioners.

Astoria parks wins grant, awards

The Daily Astorian

The Astoria Parks and Recreation Department has been given a hefty grant to fund plans for two parks sites, and won two awards for a recently finished master plan.

A $40,000 grant from the Oregon Parks and Recreation Department's local government grant program will support plans for both Shively and McClure parks. The program provides small community planning grants to support parks and outdoor recreation plans.

The city will contribute a 40 percent match of $16,000, plus an in-kind management and administration contribution of $11,000.

The Astoria Parks and Recreation comprehensive master plan — adopted by the City Council earlier this summer — received the Oregon Chapter of the American Planning Association's Public Involvement and Participation Award.

In addition, the master plan, which took 11 months to complete, received the Oregon Parks and Recreation Association's Planning Award.

More than 1,200 members of the community participated in the first-ever master plan project and provided input through public meetings, a guided tour of the parks system, online and paper surveys, and stakeholder focus group meetings.
