Late score lifts Tillamook past Astoria boys

The Daily Astorian

TILLAMOOK — Tillamook is the new leader at the top of the Cowapa League boys soccer standings, following a 1-0 win over Astoria Tuesday night.

Tillamook scored with 14 minutes remaining to break the scoreless tie, a lofted ball that was headed in by Lorenzo Mazzolari.

"I thought we had the better second half," said Astoria coach Lee Cain. "It just wasn't an offensive game. There weren't a lot of shots on goal from either team."

Astoria's best chance came on a free kick from Rafael Alcantar that deflected off the cross bar.

With 10 seniors on its roster this season, Tillamook improves to 2-0 in league, while Astoria is 1-1 and hosts a nonleague game with Taft Thursday.

In other Cowapa League boys soccer action, Seaside and Valley Catholic battled to a 2-2 tie on the Valiants' home field Tuesday.

The Gulls are 1-0-2 and host Tillamook in a first-place showdown Thursday at Broadway Field, followed by road games at Scappoose and Astoria.

Lady Fishermen defeat Mooks, 6-1

The Daily Astorian

WARRENTON — The Astoria girls soccer team scored a 6-1 win over Tillamook Tuesday night, the 15th straight win by the Lady Fishermen over the Cheesemakers going back to 2007.

It was the first Cowapa League win of the season for Astoria, which improves to 1-1-1 in league play, 2-4-1 overall. Tillamook falls to 0-7, and is now 0-33-2 since 2014.

"It was a very physical game, with a lot of fouls (and one red card)," said Astoria coach Tim Fastabend. "Tillamook is improving — they've only got three seniors.

"But we were much more structured in terms of defense, and controlled play a lot better tonight than we have been," he said. "Overall, the girls were just excited to be on the winning side of the score."

Hannah McCarley and Jenna Rudolph scored two goals apiece for the Lady Fishermen, who led 4-0 at halftime. Samantha Messing and Hailey Ranta each added a goal for Astoria, which had 17 shots on goal.

Astoria plays at Banks Thursday, followed by home games vs. Scappoose, Valley Catholic and Seaside.

Loggers sweep past Knights

The Daily Astorian

KNAPPA — The Knappa volleyball team is closing in on first place in the Northwest League, following another three-game sweep over a private school from Portland.

Knappa edged Columbia Christian in three close games, 25-23, 25-23, 25-18.

The Lady Loggers improve to 5-1 in league, just a game behind Gaston (6-0). Knappa hosts the Greyhounds Oct. 6, in the only match between the Loggers and Gaston this season.

Knappa's Jaden Miethe, left, Alisha Murphy both go after the ball against Columbia Christian on Tuesday at Knappa High School.

"We missed more serves tonight than I wanted to, but we made up for it in good passing and some aggressive coverage and big plays at the net," said Knappa coach Jeff Kaul. "Everyone was hustling and getting to the balls tonight."

Kaitlyn Landwehr led Knappa's offensive attack with eight kills, to go with three assists and two blocks. Teammate Paris Vanderburg added four kills and four assists, with eight digs.

Jaden Miethe finished with a team-high 10 digs, while Kaitlyn Truax was 16-for-17 serving, with five aces.

The Lady Loggers play at Delphian Thursday.

Indians overcome big deficits, defeat Astoria

By GARY HENLEY
The Daily Astorian

Great starts and big leads for Astoria highlighted Games 1 and 2 Tuesday night at the Brick House ... but big rallies and great finishes for Scappoose led to a three-game sweep for the Indians, 25-22, 25-23, 25-18.

Scappoose had to battle back from big deficits in the first two games to win the Cowapa League volleyball match, as the Indians improve to 2-3 in league play while the Lady Fishermen drop to 0-4.

"I was happy with how scrappy we played tonight," said Astoria coach Jessie Todd. "We blocked decently. It was just another tough night in the Cowapa League," where the top-four teams are ranked in the top 12 of the state rankings.

The night got off to a great start for Astoria.

Aurora Grafton served the Lady Fish to a 7-0 lead in Game 1, capped by Chelsea Christensen's kill off a set from Grafton.

Astoria maintained leads of 10-3 and 12-5, before the Indians gradually closed the gap.

A kill by sophomore Shylan Smith tied the rally at 16-16, before a 4-1 rally for Astoria had the Fishermen in front, 20-17.

But Scappoose answered with five straight points and finished Game 1 with an 8-2 run, highlighted by a pair of service aces by sophomore Charlotte Feige for the final two points.

The Indians led briefly to start Game 2, but Astoria again forged a seven-point lead, 12-5, after consecutive attack errors by Scappoose.

But the Indians would turn to a combination that worked all night, as Feige set teammate Hannah Gale for three kills in a 16-4 Scappoose run.

Astoria's Jaqueline Jarrett served up a couple aces and the Fishermen tied the game at 22-22, and even took a 23-22 advantage on a kill by Darian Hageman.

But the next three points and the game belonged to the Indians, with an Astoria attack error at game point.

The Fishermen trailed 15-7 in Game 3 and fought back to within 21-18, before Scappoose scored the final four points of the night, capped by a stuff block from 6-foot sophomore Kamryn Erickson at match point.

Jarrett led Astoria with 18 digs, eight kills, four aces and three blocks; Christensen added four kills and four digs; while Hailey O'Brien and Samantha Hemsley had 11 digs apiece.

Madi Landwehr and Kes Sandstrom also had big nights at the net, contributing blocks.

Astoria returns to action Thursday at home vs. Valley Catholic.

In other Cowapa League volleyball action Tuesday, Banks swept Seaside at the Gulls' Nest, 25-9, 25-20, 26-24.

JV: Scappoose def. Astoria, 3-1.
