

Gearhart FIRST SATURDAY ART WALK

Oct.
1
2 to 5 p.m.

GEARHART — The next Gearhart ArtWalk is set for 2 to 5 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 1. Gearhart merchants are featuring new paintings, beach art, jewelry and more.

A Great Gallery

576 Pacific Way
A Great Gallery will host the group art show "A Great Group," featuring the work of gallery owner Susan Thomas, Donna Mareina, Deanne Johnson, Mary Ann Gantenbein and Lynda Campbell. Refreshments, including chocolate, will be served.

Gearhart resident and jewelry artist Mareina has been a part of A Great Gallery since it opened in 2013. Mareina takes inspiration from the beach in her pieces, collecting materials while traveling.

If you have a dog with you, Johnson will probably know its name and breed. An artist who has become a significant part of the gallery over the years with many pet portraits commissioned, Johnson will show a new display of her pet portraits.

Gantenbein is the lady who encouraged gallery owner Susan Thomas to be a part of the Gearhart art community six years ago. An accomplished artist herself, Gantenbein loves the process of creating and is drawn to collage and mixed-media.

Campbell was featured during the July art walk, and many patrons inquired whether she would show again. Campbell has lived in the Seaside community with her husband for almost 50 years. After raising her family and retiring from her career teaching art in the Seaside School District, these last 12

Pacific Crest Cottage

726 Pacific Way
Pacific Crest Cottage will feature new autumn-themed oil paintings by Dutch artist Wim Vlek.

Trail's End Art Association

656 A St.
Trail's End Art Association President Richard Newman is the featured artist for October and will present the show "Photography on Metal," which will include his most recent works printed on aluminum. A photographer who lives in Beaverton and Gearhart, Newman has visited 29 countries and enjoys photographing landscapes, nature, sports and historical objects. Also see new work by other members, including oil paintings, watercolors, acrylics, photography, collages and cards.
