5 to 8 p.m.

ASTORIA — Downtown merchants and galleries will hold Astoria's Second Saturday Art Walk from 5 to 8 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 8. Meet artists and mingle with art lovers while enjoying refreshments and new exhibits. Some locations are open early or later.

ART BUSINESSES

1. Imogen Gallery

240 11th St.

Astoria artist Linden brings a new collection of paintings celebrating the life of her close friend and artistic mentor An Marie, a longtime resident of Astoria. Along with her own paintings, Linden is sharing the work of An Marie, who was a gifted artist, quietly creating but seldom sharing her renderings of the human form. This will be the first and only time the work of these two talented women will be exhibited together. Proceeds from sales of An Marie's work will go to Astoria Visual Arts, a local nonprofit.

2. RiverSea Gallery

1160 Commercial St.

In "Shades of Noir," Portland area artist Leslie Peterson Sapp has used images sourced from classic film noir of the 1940s and 1950s to create a series of mixed-media paintings with elements of collage. The characters form a web of intrigue and moral ambiguity subject to the workings of society's shady underside, much like the films themselves. In the Alcove, Astoria photographer Donna Lee Rollins offers "Atmospheric Veil," a series of hand painted black and white landscape photographs exploring the effects of fog, mist and wave.

3. Old Town Framing Co.

1287 Commercial St.

Old Town Framing will welcome Astoria painter Rod Nichols back for art walk. Reba Owen will also present her newest paintings that celebrate Halloween and birds; proceeds will go to her favorite animal charity.

4. Tempo Gallery

Tempo Gallery will feature new work by local photographer Carol

Smith in the show "Northwest Beauty." Many of the photos were taken during her travels in Oregon this summer. The other five members of Tempo will also have work on display. Come meet and talk with the artists. Refreshments will be served.

5. KALA

1017 Marine Drive

KALA presents two artists this month. Paul Soriano's figurative paintings are rich in color, fused with aspects of nature and expressions in erotica. Multidisciplinary Portland artist Sergei Khlopoff, aka SM@ck, shows acrylic paintings and drawings from his "Alternate Evolutions" series. SM@ck explores various media in his pursuit to find a voice and to examine interactions with ourselves and with local and global environments.
