Raise awareness of domestic violence in free Healthy Homes 5K Walk/Run

ASTORIA — In honor of Domestic Violence Awareness Month, the Clatsop County Domestic Violence Council will hold the fifth annual Healthy Homes — Taking a Stand Against Domestic Violence 5K Walk/Run on Saturday, Oct. 8 at the Columbia River Maritime Museum's Barbey Maritime Center.

The community is invited to join this free, all-ages 5K walk and run on the Astoria Riverwalk, which supports healthy homes and families in Clatsop County.

Registration starts at 9:30 a.m., and the free walk/run will begin at 10 a.m. Dogs are welcome to join in the event. Food and beverages will be served, and there will be a community resource fair. The Barbey Maritime Center is located at 2042 Marine Drive.

Donations to the Harbor, Clatsop County's domestic violence crisis center, will be accepted. For 40 years, The Harbor has been providing intervention, recovery and support services to survivors of stalking, domestic violence and sexual assault.

For more information, call Ben Bradshaw with the Clatsop County Domestic Violence Council at 503-995-6509.

Redmen Hall to showcase artwork by Wahkiakum County artists this fall

SKAMOKAWA, Wash. — For its final art exhibition of the year, the River Life Interpretive Center at Redmen Hall will show works from Wahkiakum County's Tsuga Art Gallery in the show "Tsuga Gallery presents a Tsunami of Art."

The exhibition title reflects the variety and intensity of local Wahkiakum County artists. Among the artists included in the art show will be photographers, painters, ceramists, wood artists, fine jewelers and some who do a combination. Included in the group will be Mike Rees, Mitzi Christensen, Dan Tchozewski, Genie Cary, Noreen Fitts, Joan Wren, Ruth Doumit and several others.

The exhibit will open Saturday, Oct. 8 with a party to meet all the artists from 1 to 3 p.m.

This exhibit will run to Nov. 20, to be followed by Redmen Hall's annual Holiday Open House. Several of the artists will be leaving their work for that event.

Redmen Hall is located at 1394 Washington State Route 4 and is open from noon to 4 p.m. Thursday to Sunday.

For more information, call 360-795-3007 during open hours.
