

Andy Hackbarth Trio brings blend of folk, jazz, indie to Raymond Theatre

Sunday Afternoon Live hosts concert on Sunday, Nov. 6

RAYMOND, Wash. — Sunday Afternoon Live will present a captivating and memorable musical event this weekend: the Andy Hackbarth Trio. Woven from Colorado folk, classical roots and the Nashville experience, the Andy Hackbarth Trio is a crowd-pleaser with universal appeal.

Hackbarth trained as a flamenco and classical guitar master and delivers performances comprised of his diverse musical influences, including ethnic folk tradition, jazz standards, traditional classics and modern indie rock. Winner of multiple music awards, Hackbarth is not only a talented instrumentalist but also a powerful vocalist and accomplished songwriter.

The musical performance begins at 2 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 6 at the Raymond Theatre. Daylight Savings Time ends early in the morning

Oregon Symphonic Band concert brought to you by the letter 'B'

Clatskanie Arts Commission hosts concert of Bach, Beethoven and Brahms on Nov. 6

CLATSKANIE — The Clatskanie Arts Commission will once again welcome the Oregon Symphonic Band in concert.

The band will perform the second concert in its 2016-17 season at 3 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 6 at Clatskanie Mid/High School, Donavon Wooley Performing Arts Center, located at 471 S.W. BelAir Drive.

The theme of the Oregon Symphonic Band concert is "The Three Bs an Then Some." The "Three Bs" are generally considered to be Bach, Beethoven and Brahms; but all the works on this concert have been composed or arranged by someone whose name begins with the letter "B."

The concert will begin with Berlioz's "Roman Carnival Overture," a virtuoso piece with one of the most beautiful English horn solos in the repertoire, followed by Beethoven's "March in F."

"Blessed are They" from the Brahms Requiem is next, and then comes Bizet's famous "Farandole" from the L'Arlesienne Suite. The first half of the concert will conclude with "Joy in all Things" by Brian Balmages.

After a short intermission, the Oregon Symphonic Band will return to open the second half of the program with "Overture to Candide" by Leonard Bernstein. Bach's beautiful "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" is next.

Movie music will follow: "The Man From Snowy River" from the movie of the same name, arranged by Barry Bignell.

The finale to the concert will be Robert Buckley's exciting "Iditarod," a musical depiction of the famous dogsled race of the same name.

Tickets will be available at the door: $10 for adults, $8 for students and seniors age 60 and older, and $6 for children age 12 and under. Band students are free. Tickets are available at Hump's Restaurant in Clatskanie, by calling Elsa at 503-728-3403 or at the door at 2:30 p.m. Nov. 6.

This concert is possible through the sponsorship of Mike Arther Machine Service.

Enjoy trivia night at Seaside Public Library

SEASIDE — At 6 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 9, the Seaside Public Library will host its monthly Team Trivia Tournament.

Teams can consist of one person or have as many as six people.

Trivia nights are informal, fun competitions where teams battle to see who has the greatest knowledge of all matters trivial.

General questions will be asked by the library's trivia host. The winners are the team that, at the end of the night, has correctly answered the most questions. Prizes will be awarded, but the main prize is knowing you have the smartest trivia team in Clatsop County.

The Seaside Public Library is located at 1131 Broadway, across from the youth center and swimming pool.

For more information on this event or other library activities call 503-738-6742 or visit www.seasidelibrary.org
