FIRST SATURDAY

ART WALK

Nov. 5
5 to 7 p.m.

SEASIDE — The Seaside First Saturday Art Walk, celebrating 12 years in 2016, is all about the arts. Visitors walk about, meet artists, sip wine or snag appetizers, view artist demonstrations, listen to an artist talk or enjoy live performances in music. The next art walk is from 5 to 7 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 5 at galleries located in the historic Gilbert District of downtown Seaside.

SunRose Gallery

606 Broadway

Visit with owner and artist Cathy Tippin, who creates broken china mosaics in the French tradition. Colorful and inspiring, SunRose features the spectrum of creative, from recycle art to fine art mosaics by local, regional and nationally known artists. See artwork by Mimi Cernyar Fox, who is inspired by her marine surroundings. She uses sand dollar mosaics, paintings and drawings to tell a story. SunRose also offers artful women's accessories, gifts, home decor and eclectic garden art.

Fairweather House and Gallery

612 Broadway

Fairweather will host an opening reception for "A Simple Approach." The essence of every sanctuary one creates in the approaching season can be distilled down to the principles of classic neutrals, materials that endure and soothing sight lines in art pulled from a serene environment. Regional artists in the show are Lori Wallace-Lloyd, who will be offering a Painting Seaside LIVE demonstration; Denise Joy McFadden, who will introduce woven watercolors; and Kathryn Delany, who portrays through her encaustic/mixed-media art "a little bit of the feeling of isolation of the birds, the vastness of their universe and the landscape underneath them." At 6 p.m. ecologist and wildlife photographer Neal Maine will offer a lecture on the local habitat. Enjoy refreshments, live music by Shirley 88 and patron gifts.

Moxie

609 Broadway

Moxie is a conscientious business filled with the eclectic, from exclusive jewelry to handmade art and fair trade clothing. The store, with its first location in Manzanita and its second new location in Seaside, is an established member of the Fair Trade Federation

Beach Books

616 Broadway

Authors Chandler O'Leary and Jessica Spring will join artist Jim Zaleski for this month's art walk. A member of the Green Cab Collective of artists, Zaleski is an abstract-expressionist who loves color and whimsy. He will exhibit samples of his work that explode with color, energy, joy and wonder. Also see work by other Green Cabbie artists: Helvi Smith, Elina Zebergs, Jeff Hall, Amy Osborne, Barbara Martin and Anne Brown. O'Leary and Spring will discuss their new book, "Dead Feminists: Historic Heroines in Living Color," at 6:30 p.m., focusing on both ordinary and extraordinary women who have made a difference throughout history. It's a profound and super-smart look at feminist craft, creation and collaboration.

T. anjuli's Gallery

7 N. Holladay Drive

The gallery will feature "Heartbeat," a new series of original art focusing on what lies beneath appearances by owner Billy Lutz, whose body of work spans a career of 30 years of mature thematic painting. Taken as a whole, the art

"Sand dollar salmon" by Mimi Cernyar Fox at SunRose Gallery.

"Winter Seeds" by Neal Maine at Fairweather's.

"Salon" by Billy Lutz at T. Anjuli's.

reflects a sustained examination of spirituality and present-tense collectivism. As a vehicle, this theme is moved forward within the paradox of duality.

Additional art:

SeaSoles Boutique, 608 Broadway; The Gilbert District Gallery, 613 Broadway; Seaside Coffee House, 3 N. Holladay Drive; Hold Fast Gallery, 611 Broadway; Seaside

"Birth of Time" by Jim Zaleski at Beach Books.

A painting by Kathryn Delany at Fairweather.

Fair trade art is on display at Moxie in downtown Seaside.

Antique Mall, 726 Broadway.

Participating restaurants:

Guido and Vito's, 604 Broadway; Tora Sushi, 619 Broadway; Nonni's

Bistro, 831 Broadway; Liliko Grill, 714 Broadway; Yellow Curry Cozy Thai, 20 N. Holladay Drive.
