

OBITUARIES

William Thomas Painter
Warrenton
March 22, 1936 — Oct. 4, 2016

William Thomas Painter, formerly of Portland, Oregon, passed over to be with his creator on Oct. 4, 2016, at the age of 80.

Bill's humor and faith touched uncountable lives through his life-long dedication to helping others. He gave to his community as a youth ministry leader at Holy Trinity Church in Beaverton, parent volunteer with the Boy Scouts of America, Little League coach, mentor and instructor of young musicians, a member of the North Coast Symphonic and Jazz bands for many years, and as an elder of the Clatsop-Nehalem Confederated Tribes.

Bill graduated from Franklin High School in 1954 and Lewis and Clark College.

William Painter

He was preceded in death by his father, William Maxwell, and mother, Josephine (Jo) Florence (Vineyard) Painter. He is survived by his five adult children and seven grandchildren, Jeff (Kathy) and their children, Jessica, Jeff Jr. and Jordan; Tami (Mike) and their children, Michael and Christopher; Debi (Scott); William S. (Kika) and their daughter, Eliana; and Michelle (Keith) and their daughter, Mayah; three great-grandchildren; and numerous cousins, nieces, nephews, and their extended families.

A community celebration of his life took place on Nov. 13, 2016, in Astoria, Oregon.

Donations to the North Coast Symphonic Band are appreciated.

Home in Milton-Freewater is in charge of the arrangements.

AMSBERRY, Dale Sterling, 90, of Astoria, died in Astoria. Caldwell's Luce-Layton Mortuary in Astoria is in charge of the arrangements.

David L. Morgan
Elsie and Queen Creek, Arizona
Oct. 24, 1936 — Oct. 24, 2016

David L. Morgan passed on Oct. 24, 2016, his 80th birthday. David was a resident of the Nehalem Valley for 68 years, and was born in Forest Grove to Loyd and Leah (Gary) Morgan.

He graduated from Jewell High School in 1955 and joined the U.S. Air Force. Home on leave, David married Nellie Berg in 1958; they were married for 58 years. They returned to the Nehalem Valley when he was honorably discharged.

David got his college education, as he called it, "in the school of hard knocks." Pursuing his love of cooking, he worked at the Village Green, Salishan Lodge. He worked his way up to executive chef of The Inn at Spanish Head and The Inn at Otter Crest.

In 1973, David and Nellie bought the Elderberry Inn from his parents, remodeled it and worked there for 42 years. Working at the business, he became friends with everyone who traveled on Highway 26. In 2015, they sold the business and were ready to retire.

David and Nellie traveled through the western U.S., Alaska and Hawaii, with extensive trips to Mexico and Baja, Mexico, some of the best times of their lives. Many of those trips were with family and friends. They made life-long friends with people they met on those trips. David loved fishing, hunting and relaxing with friends but most of all, he loved his family. His grandchildren played a big part in his life.

In June 2015, David and Nellie moved to Queen Creek, Arizona, where they lived with their daughter, Brenda, and family. David battled dementia in the final years, and was cared for at home by Nellie and family until his death.

David was active in the Elsie Vinemapple Fire Department as a volunteer fireman, on the board of directors and supporting. He was a 47-year member of the Elks Lodge. David was also a member of the Nehalem Valley Pioneer Association.

He is preceded in death by his father Loyd, mother Leah, stepmother Irma and brother Richard. David is survived by his wife, Nellie; daughter Monica Raichl and husband, Andrej, of Astoria; son Wade of Jewell; daughter Brenda Hancey and husband, Brian, of Queen Creek, Arizona; eight grandchildren, Tiffany Caterby, Christy Cobb, Cory Raichl, Melissa Hancey, Joel Hathaway, Samantha Holliday, David Hancey and John Morgan; five great-grandchildren; two great-great-grandchildren; a sister-in-law, Shirley Morgan; one half-brother, Ted Wilkins; and too many cousins, nieces, nephews and countless friends.

A celebration of life will be held at the Jewell School Saturday, Nov. 19 at 11 a.m. Please come and enjoy time with family and friends.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Elsie Vinemapple Fire Department or the Jewell Memorial Scholarship Fund.

Gerold 'Jerry' Martin Solum Sr.
Knappa
Oct. 6, 1939 — Nov. 7, 2016

Gerold "Jerry" Martin Solum Sr., 77, of Knappa (Astoria), Oregon, passed away surrounded by loved ones in Portland on Nov. 7, 2016.

Jerry was born in Stanley, North Dakota, to Almer and Leota "Lee" (Footh) Solum on Oct. 6, 1939. The family relocated to Portland in 1951. At age 9 Jerry set bowling pins, and at 15 he worked to help support his family. At 16, Jerry started his lifelong career of roofing with the help of his stepfather, Bud Ogier.

Three weeks after his 17th birthday Jerry married the love of his life, Marie (Shaffer) Solum, on Oct. 27, 1956, in Vancouver, Washington. They recently celebrated 60 years of marriage this past month. Shortly after their wedding, he started his own roofing business in Portland. Jerry and Marie moved to Knappa in 1971 to help his mother raise two younger brothers. It was during this time that Jerry's roofing company began to flourish, and to this day, his company is still well-known and operating.

Jerry was a loving and devoted son, husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, brother and friend; he enjoyed spending time with his family more than anything. He loved golfing, and built his own golf course with the help of friends. He enjoyed the sunshine while visiting their second home in Lake Havasu City, Arizona, though he never stayed long, because he enjoyed tending to the golf course and keeping busy with his business.

In his younger years, he enjoyed skiing, motorcycles and car racing. In later years he was always known for being active. Jerry persevered through several major accidents, and finally open heart surgery in 2009. He still refused to give up roofing, and anyone who knew him considered him to be a workaholic — he never truly retired.

Jerry is survived by the following:

Daughters: Kelly Chernault and Mike Zimmerman of Portland, Oregon; Lori Wirkkala of Ilwaco, Washington; Mona and Gary Heilman of Astoria; and D'Ann Solum of Portland. He was preceded in death by a son, Gerold "Marty" Martin Solum Jr., who passed in 1982.

Grandchildren: Joe and Sarah Muehlhauser; Sean Muehlhauser and Cassidy Clark. Brian Davidson; Rachel Davidson and husband Javier Sanchez; and Kyle Wirkkala. Derek Heiner; Scott and Brianna Heiner; Kathryn Heilmann and Gary Heilmann Jr. Mitchel Solum and Laura Hill; Amanda Van Stane; and Marissa and Daniel Alfaro. Great-grandchildren are Angelina Linares, Antonio Sanchez and Aurora Muehlhauser.

Brothers and sister: Brothers Allen "Goose" and Pat Solum, Eddie Westfall, Rodney "Rod" and Debbie Solum, Kevin Ogier of Astoria; Blaine and Pam Ogier of Orange, California. He was preceded in death by four brothers, Dorsey H. Ogier, Callvin A. Ogier, Gary A. Solum, Richard "Dick" Solum and sister Bonnie Westfall.

Jerry is also survived by numerous cousins, in-laws, nieces and nephews ... too many to list.

Everyone is welcome to attend and participate in Jerry's Celebration of Life that will be held at the Clatsop County Fairgrounds, 92937 Walluski Loop, Astoria, on Saturday, Nov. 19, 2016, from 1 to 4 p.m. Contact Mary Ann Hall at 503-741-0748 for additional information.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Mayo Clinic Hospital, 13400 E. Shea Blvd., Scottsdale, AZ 85259.
