

Bayside Singers to sing in concert

CHINOOK, Wash. — The Bayside Singers concert originally set for Oct. 22 has been moved to Nov. 19.

Colorful music for the colorful autumn season: That's what the Bayside Singers will offer in their Nov. 19 concert in Chinook. The program starts at 2:30 p.m. Saturday in the Chinook School Event Center, 810 U.S. Highway 101.

Duet and trio vocal numbers will be interspersed with the 40-person choral selections. One group of songs is for women's voices, while male voices will be featured in the rousing "Boatman" song.

Some of the other choral numbers, like "Sole Deo" and "Simple Gifts" are long-time favorites. Spirituals and ballads, including "Keep Your Lamps Trimmed and Burning" and "The Storm is Passing Over," are popular with Bayside audiences.

Pianist Barbara Bate is the group's accompanist.

Director Barbara Poulshock is well-known for her compositions and arrangements. One of the program selections is of special interest. "In My Garden" contains words and music by her son, Joseph Poulshock, and arrangement is by Barbara. The song describes the joy of gardens, nature's gifts, and "the fragrance of delight."

Other program numbers for which Poulshock has written the arrangements are the Scottish ballad "Loch Lomond" and "Till the Wind Gets Right."

The program includes an intermission when coffee and refreshments will be available for purchase. There is no admission charge for the concert, but freewill offerings will be accepted.

Submit artwork to 30th annual Miniatures Show

CANNON BEACH — The Cannon Beach Gallery seeks submissions for its 30th annual Miniatures Show.

In light of the 30th anniversary, the theme of the show is "Memories & Mementos," encouraging artists to take a look back through their memories and interpret them through their art.

The theme can be interpreted freely, and work can be in any medium. Each artist can submit up to four works. 2D work must be no more than 6-by-6 inches square and when framed should not exceed 14 inches. 3D work should not exceed 6 inches in any dimension.

The show will be juried by Jeannine Grafton, owner of Astoria's Riversea Gallery.

Any artwork that is not juried into the exhibition will be displayed in a satellite show in the Cannon Beach Arts Association's new Creative Coast Project Space, located upstairs at Sandpiper Square.

This is an open submission show; you do not need to be a member of CBAA to submit work. There is no submission fee. All work must be available for sale.

Work should be delivered to Cannon Beach Gallery, 1064 S. Hemlock St., between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. Nov. 30. Early submissions can be delivered to the Creative Coast Project Space between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. Wednesday through Saturday.

The exhibition will open with a reception from 6 to 8 p.m. Dec. 3. The show will run through Jan. 8.

Nominate your neighbor for George, Ford Awards

Nominations for service awards are due Dec. 16

ASTORIA and WARRENTON — Nominations are open for the 2016 George and Ford Awards.

Do you know a community member who has made a difference in Astoria? Nominate them for the George Award.

Every year, the Astoria Warrenton Chamber of Commerce and the city of Astoria honor a local recipient for outstanding community service. The prestigious George Award honors someone who has consistently stepped forward to meet community needs, instead of "letting George do it." Last year's recipients were Dan Arnoth and Norma Hernandez.

Do you know an individual who has served others in Warrenton? Nominate them for the annual Richard Ford Distinguished Service Award.

Richard Ford's family established this award to honor the late Ford for his exemplary service to the community. Ford worked for the city of Warrenton as the building inspector and the fire chief. But, most importantly, he volunteered much of his free time helping his neighbors. The award, presented by the city of Warrenton and the Astoria Warrenton Chamber of Commerce, is given to a person who has devoted time and energy in countless ways to the community. Last year's recipients were Judy and Gary Sivley.

Chamber members and the public are invited to offer nominations, which are due by 5 p.m. Dec. 16.

this year's recipients. The awards will be presented at the chamber's Annual Meeting and Banquet on Jan. 28.

Nomination forms are available at the chamber office, at Warrenton City Hall and at the chamber website, www.oldoregon.com

Nominations should include: Nominee name, contact information, occupation and description of community service. Don't forget to provide your name and contact information.

Letters of support with the nomination are encouraged. If your nominee is selected, the chamber will ask you to assist in making sure the recipient and his/her friends and family attend the awards ceremony.
