

Seaside FIRST SATURDAY

ART WALK

Dec. 3
5 to 7 p.m.

SEASIDE — The Seaside First Saturday Art Walk, celebrating 12 years in 2016, is all about the arts. Visitors walk about, meet artists, sip wine or snag appetizers, view artist demonstrations, listen to an artist talk or enjoy live performances in music. The next art walk is from 5 to 7 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 3 at galleries located in the historic Gilbert District of downtown Seaside. The event is free and open to the public.

The mission of the Seaside First Saturday Art Walk is to sell art, provide a cultural experience and to support regional talents in visual art, literature, music, theater and dance for the benefit of residents and visitors.

SunRose Gallery

606 Broadway
Every December, SunRose celebrates the mixed-media art of local artist Patty Thurlby. This year her theme is "Merry Christmas, Rain or Shine." Thurlby has upcycled found objects and art into one-of-a-kind shrines both sacred and whimsical, and as an added gift she is offering all her art 20 percent off for the month of December. Also featured are: Susan Hildebrandt, Mimi Cernyar Fox, Bill Vlek, Robin Montero and SunRose owner and artist Cathy Tippin.

Fairweather House and Gallery

612 Broadway
Fairweather will host an opening reception for "Quiet and Clarity." There is, indeed, a quiet strength found in stepping aside from being hurried in the hectic holiday season. And, too, there is such clarity found in the qualities of clearly crafted works of art, each one so carefully defined that it communicates purposefully, effectively and silently with its intended audience. The show features artist Marga Stanley, abstract artist Diane Copenhaver, woodcut relief artist Ashley Howarth.

The gallery will also showcase master harp builder Duane Bolster. For nearly 50 years, he worked in operating rooms and Intensive Care Units and witnessed the healing and soothing effects that harp music had on the children he cared for and on their parents. In 2006 he won the Hero award from CCA "for creating a magnificent harp for the music program," and in 2010 he won the John Barry Award from Northwest Kidney Kids Inc. "for providing exceptional care to children with kidney disease."

Naturalist Neal Maine will speak at 6 p.m. about the ecology of the region. Enjoy live music by Shirley 88 on the keyboard, refreshments and adult beverages.

Moxie, Shine On

609 Broadway
Moxie is a conscientious business filled with the eclectic, from exclusive jewelry to handmade art and fair trade clothing. The store, with its first location in Manzanita and its second location in Seaside, is an established member of the Fair Trade Federation.

Beach Books

616 Broadway
Beach Books will host a holiday group show during the month of December from the Green Cab Collective, a group of artists inspired by the BlueRider artist group. Featured artists are Helvi Smith, Jeffrey Hall, Elina Zeburg, Jim Zaleski, Barbara Martin, Amy Osborne and Anne Brown. The "Cabbies" are a synergistic alliance of artists, working in a variety of mediums. The group playing 14 ukuleles returns for an encore.
