Cannon Beach museum holds holiday celebration

CANNON BEACH — Family, friends, kids, Oregonians: It's time to have a little fun and maybe laugh a little. On Saturday, Dec. 17, the Cannon Beach History Center & Museum welcomes you to its annual holiday and appreciation event.

Between 11 a.m. and 5 p.m., the museum will offer a series of fun activities, tasty treats and even a free raffle.

Enjoy hot chocolate, apple cider, Sleepy Monk coffee and a holiday punch. The museum staff will have homemade cupcakes, brownies and other treats for you to enjoy.

Bring the kiddos for story time at 1 p.m. when Executive Director Elaine Murdy-Trucke and Archivist Liz Johnson read from their favorite holiday tomes. The kids will also love the museum's own Christmas Banana.

"Everyone has a Santa," says Murdy-Trucke. "We have the Christmas Banana." While the story behind this potassium-carrying, holiday-loving character is a bit unclear, one can't help but be curious.

In addition to the Christmas Banana, museum staff will be sporting their favorite holiday ugly sweaters all day. Enjoy a relaxing coloring session or learn some unique Cannon Beach history.

Don't miss the free raffle. Everyone that visits the museum on Dec. 17 will automatically be entered into a raffle to win a Terrible Tilly hoodie or a basket of goodies from Bruce's Candy Kitchen (one entry per person.) Not to mention, everything in the museum's gift shop will be 40 percent off for active members — sounds like a holiday treat.

The Cannon Beach History Center & Museum is a private nonprofit located at 1387 S. Spruce St. For more information visit www.cbhistory.org or call 503-436-9301.
