Enjoy engineering activities

ASTORIA — The Columbia River Maritime Museum hopes to inspire the next generation of critical thinkers and problem solvers with an exciting week of family engineering activities geared toward elementary-aged children and adults.

Family Engineering Week activities will be held from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Tuesday through Friday, Dec. 27 to 30 at the museum's Ford Room.

Family Engineering Week

will provide an opportunity for children and parents to interact together as they discover the fun and excitement of elementary engineering.

Families will gain an understanding of science, technology, engineering and mathematics.

Developed with support from the National Science Foundation and modeled after the Family Science and Family Math programs, Family Engineering provides 21st century skills of inquiry, creativity, teamwork and collaborative problem solving.

Families will discover the many career opportunities in engineering and will participate in more than 20 different hands-on activities and crafts.

The engineering activities are included with paid admission; museum members are free. The Columbia River Maritime Museum is located at 1799 Marine Drive.

Coastal Soul presents 'A Soulful Christmas'

Enjoy a seasonal concert at the Hoffman Center

MANZANITA — 'Tis the season of holly and jolly! Join LaNicia Williams and her mother, Gwendolyn Phillips Coates, in a holiday concert from 7 to 9 p.m. Friday, Dec. 23, at the Hoffman Center, located at 594 Laneda Ave.

Tickets are $15 at the door for ages 12 and older, and $5 for ages 11 and younger.

Light refreshments will be served.

Williams grew up singing in her grandfather's church. She remembers doing her first solo concert for her 7th birthday. Since moving to the coast in September 2014, Williams has been sharing her love through food as owner of Coastal Soul and her love of music singing Motown favorites with local bands.

The guest vocalist is Coates from Long Beach, California, singing with her daughter. Coates is celebrating the 20th anniversary of her Christmas CD, "It's Christmas, Rejoice!" The CD will be available for purchase for $10 at the concert and can also be purchased on amazon.com.

She also has a contemporary gospel jazz CD, "Grateful." Coates is an author of "Waiting on My Lunch Date: A journey Through Grief and a Path to Joy," a pastor, actress, mother of three and grandmother of four.
