Kick up your heels at community contra dance

ASTORIA — Community contra dancing is back. Inspired by the crowd at a recent contra dance at the Netel Grange, Dave Ambrose has organized what he hopes to be a monthly contra dance in downtown Astoria.

The kick-off dance will be Friday, Jan. 13 at Astoria Arts & Movement Center, located at 342 10th St. The dance will feature live music by local musicians and Ambrose as dance caller.

The dance will start at 7 p.m. with a beginner's lesson for those new to contra or folk dancing, and the event will run until 10 p.m. All ages are welcome.

Bringing a dance partner is not necessary as contra dancers are encouraged to dance with as many partners as they are comfortable with.

The entrance fee is a sliding scale of $5 to $10. You can give more to support the musicians, caller and hall.

If all goes well, there will be a regular monthly dance every second Friday of the month. For more information, call Ambrose at 503-741-8412
