Find the perfect accessory and help a good cause at annual Accessorize Sale

ASTORIA — Assistance League of the Columbia Pacific announces the return of its super fundraiser, the annual Accessorize Sale, to be held from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 5 at The Loft at the Red Building, located at 20 Basin St.

Shoppers will have plenty of time before the big game starts on Super Bowl Sunday to take a break and shop for that special handbag, scarf or piece of jewelry, all at bargain prices.

This annual fundraiser helps Assistance League make a difference for area schoolchildren. Assistance League Columbia Pacific is a nonprofit, all-volunteer organization whose philanthropic programs promote the well-being and self-esteem of children and teens throughout Clatsop County.

Assistance League is also requesting donations of new or gently used jewelry, purses, scarves and home décor. Donations can be dropped off at all Columbia Bank locations in Clatsop County.

For more information visit assistancelleaguecp.org or contact Mary Davies at 503-738-0313.

Columbian Artists Association issues call for Spring Art Show

KELSO, Wash. — Area artists are invited to participate in the Columbian Artists Association's 41st annual juried Spring Art Show to be held March 18 through April 2 at the Three Rivers Mall, located at 3513 Three Rivers Drive in Kelso, Washington.

The show is open to artists 18 and older from Cowlitz, Clark, Wahkiakum, Lewis and Pacific counties in Washington and Clatsop and Columbia counties in Oregon.

Entries must be original work, completed in the past two years. Both two- and three-dimensional work will be accepted. Work will be judged and cash awards given in each category. Additional awards include a memorial award, sponsor awards and people's choice award.

Entries will be received from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. March 13 at the Three Rivers Mall.

Entry forms and a prospectus with details regarding rules, categories, sizes and entry fees are available online at www.columbianartists.org. They are also available at the Broadway Gallery in Longview, or by calling 360-425-0142.
