

Concert to honor Jason Goodding

SEASIDE — The first Sgt. Jason Goodding Memorial Concert will take place at 8 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 11 at the Seaside Elks Lodge, located at 324 Ave. A. The concert will feature a Texas Tribute to ZZ Top.

All donations benefit the Oregon Fallen Badge Foundation. Goodding, a 39-year-old Seaside police officer, was killed in the line of duty in February 2016 during a warrant arrest. He is survived by his wife and two daughters.

Sponsors include the Seaside Chamber of Commerce, Clatsop Community Bank, Clatsop Distributing, Seaside Outlets, Seaside American Legion, Pit 'N Pancake, Snook's Auto Repair, Trucke, and Dave and Penny Bartholet.

Find Sweet Affair in Seaside

SEASIDE — The 10th annual A Sweet Affaire will be held from 4 to 6:30 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 12 at the Seaside Civic and Convention Center, 415 First Ave. This community event will feature wine, beer, spirits, non-alcoholic beverage tasting, signature small bite appetizers provided by local restaurants, fine chocolates and desserts, live music and raffle and auction items.

Local chefs, restaurateurs, vintners and brewers who have prepared and donated the afternoon's appetizers, desserts, and beverages will be on hand for the event. Pianist Lynn Archibald will provide music.

The silent and live auctions include an array of activities within and outside the area, donated by merchants and individuals, including gift certificates from local restaurants, spas and hotels, gift baskets ranging from a wishing-for-summer barbecue basket to a stay-at-home-date-night basket, unlimited movie passes, bowling parties, helicopters rides and zip line tours — and a drawing featuring a romantic getaway to Victoria, British Columbia, which includes a hotel stay for two nights, tea service and vouchers for Butchart Gardens and the Ferry Transport, plus champagne and truffles, a $2,500 value.

A Sweet Affaire is a fundraising event for scholarships and Seaside Rotary Foundation projects within the community.

Through the funding from the Sunset Parks and Seaside Rotary foundations, youth and adults have had access to positive recreation activities such as swimming lessons, senior aquatics, after-school care, art enrichment and summer camp programs. In addition, over 300 Seaside families have received gifts for the holidays, and high school students have been awarded college scholarships, been given opportunities to participate in youth exchanges programs and have enjoyed a safe graduation party.

This event is for adults only. Tickets are $35 per person and are available at Sunset Pool, Bob Chisholm Community Center, from a Seaside Rotary member, or online at www.brownpaper-tickets.com/event/2800828

LightBox displays 'The Photographic Nude'

See 11th annual international juried exhibition Feb. 11

ASTORIA — LightBox Photographic Gallery will open "The Photographic Nude 2017" with an artists' reception from 6 to 9 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 11.

This is the seventh year of the annual international juried exhibit, a collection of photographic prints exploring the artistic and creative view of the body and its form, dedicated to the creative spirit of photographer Ruth Bernhard.

LightBox developed "The Photographic Nude" series to reveal compelling imagery and mastery of the medium, to foster appreciation of the nude in the medium of photography and gain an understanding of the theme historically in the photographic art form, as well as to bring further recognition to the current artists who practice the art.

This year's international exhibit was juried by Kim Weston of Carmel, California, and the famed photography family. With a total of 65 images selected for the exhibit from 55 photographers, the show represents many of the talented practitioners of the photographic fine art nude from around the country and the world.

Again this year, all accepted images to "The Photographic Nude 2017" exhibit will be published in the upcoming April edition of Blur magazine, blur-magazine.com, an online magazine promoting international fine art photography, located in Zagreb, Croatia.

The exhibit runs from Feb. 11 through March 8. Visit lightbox-photographic.com for complete exhibit and artist info. LightBox offers associate memberships as a way to further the mission of the gallery. LightBox provides photographic printing and archival framing, restorations and other photographic services.
