Audition for 'Real Lewis and Clark Story'

ASOC to hold open auditions for original musical on Feb. 12 and 13

ASTORIA — The Astor Street Opry Company will hold auditions for its original production "The Real Lewis and Clark Story, or How the Finns Discovered Astoria."

Written by Judith P. Niland, with original music by Stanley Azen and Joyce C. Niland of Pasadena, California, and Philip Morrill of Astoria, this vaudeville-style, musical melodrama will be directed by Ashley Mundel, with musical direction by Dida DeAngelis and choreography by Carleta Lewis-Allen.

Open auditions will be at 6 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 12 and at 7 p.m. Monday, Feb. 13 at the ASOC Playhouse, located at 129 W. Bond St.

No previous theater or music experience is necessary for any of the small or large parts for over 20 actors and actresses.

The musical follows a couple of heroes forging their way from Missouri to the Oregon Coast, suffering tragedy at the hands of evil foes while battling the wild — all without losing their beer supplies. Watch how they come to the gallant rescue of the Corps of Discovery, reach the end of the Pacific Trail first and settle the city they christen "Astoria" in honor of their relative, John Jacob Svenson-Astor.

Performances are 7 p.m. Friday and Saturday, March 31 through April 29.

There will be two matinees at 2 p.m. Sunday, April 9 and 23.

The house opens 30 minutes before each performance. All tickets for Friday performances cost $5 for any seat.

This year, the Astor Street Opry Company is looking for a fiddler and guitar player to join the musical crew and add a little spark to the musical journey. If you have interest in performing and have questions, contact director Ashley Mundel at mundelmakeupartistry@gmail.com or at 503-730-9689.

For tickets, call 503-325-6104, or visit www.astorstree-toprycompany.com
