(FOR THE WEEK OF JAN. 30- FEB. 4)

MADDI UTTI
Senior

The Lady Gulls' senior had her biggest week yet last week in wins over Banks and Scappoose. In the victory over the Braves for first place in the Cowapa League, Utti scored a school-record 37 points (breaking her own mark of 35), with five steals, six rebounds and seven assists. She was 13-of-14 from the field, which included 4-for-4 from the 3-point line. Utti had nine points, with eight steals and eight assists in the win over Scappoose. She scored 31 points and finished with a triple-double Wednesday in a victory at Astoria.

He won the 200-yard individual medley in a personal best 2 minutes, 24.27 seconds, and later won the 100-yard breaststroke in 1:14.00, also a PR. Lady Loggers crush Knights

The Daily Astorian

PORTLAND — Kaitlyn Landwehr scored 22 points and pulled down 17 rebounds with five steals to lead the Knappa girls to an easy 51-14 win at Columbia Christian Wednesday night. Ressa Inman added 10 points and nine boards for the Lady Loggers, who outscored the Knights 12-1 in a decisive second quarter. Aiko Miller finished with four points and five rebounds for Knappa, which improves to 8-7 in league. The Loggers finish the regular season Saturday at Nestucca before opening the Northwest League playoffs.

Knights top Logger boys, 63-39

The Daily Astorian

PORTLAND — The stretch run of the regular season is a tough one for the Knappa Loggers, who faced more strong competition on the road Wednesday night. No. 2-ranked Columbia Christian officially took over first place in the Northwest League standings with a 63-39 win over Knappa, in a Class 2A, top 10 boys basketball matchup in Portland. The Knights (13-1) jumped out to a 12-5 lead after one quarter, and led 23-8 late in the second. It was the second straight loss for the Loggers (13-2), and third in their last five games. Knappa returns to action today at home vs. Life Christian, followed by road contests at Nestucca and Life Christian.

Ilwaco teams split playoff games at home

ILWACO, Wash. — Onalaska didn't look scared to go toe-to-toe with the Pacific League champion Ilwaco Lady Fishermen — at least in the first quarter. The Lady Loggers played IHS close early on, but Ilwaco's Makenzie Kaech had other ideas. Kaech scored a game high 22 points as the Lady Fishermen easily took down their District IV tournament first-round opponent Wednesday night, 69-21.

After closing out the first quarter with a 26-10 lead, the defense of Ilwaco's Ebby McMullen early in second quarter helped Ilwaco in holding the Loggers to just two points in second quarter, and soon took a 20-plus point lead, finishing the first half leading 47-12.

By 5:50 of the third quarter, Ilwaco had built a 53-12 lead — enough to kick the mercy rule into effect with a running clock for the remainder of the game. McMullen scored 15 for IHS, while Madeline Jacobson added 13.

The Lady Fishermen now play the Central League's number two seed Adna (20-2) on Saturday, time and location to be determined. A win would put Ilwaco in the district semifinals next week.

Fishermen can't finish

The Ilwaco boys (the Pacific League number two seed) had many chances but just couldn't shoot their way to a win Wednesday night in their first-round district tournament game with Winlock. Senior Zac Tapio rimmed in a three with 12 seconds remaining to cut the deficit to 46-47, but a pair of Winlock free throws and a missed shot at the buzzer now has the Fishermen on the losing side of the tournament bracket.

Only five players scored for Ilwaco, with Tapio racking up a game high 22.

The game featured sloppy play by both teams — both shot poorly, with Winlock just shooting a little bit better than IHS. Ilwaco, which relies heavily on their outside shooting, finally found some footing at the end of the third quarter, hitting multiple shots to cut the lead to 29-32.

Ethan Bannister scored 8 for IHS, while Alex Kaino added 6 points.

The Fishermen now face NW Christian on Monday at 8 p.m., in Tumwater in a loser-out game.
