Libraries Reading Outreach in Clatsop County plans fundraiser

SEASIDE — The Libraries Reading Outreach in Clatsop County program will be holding its second annual fundraiser on March 23 at the Seaside Civic and Convention Center.

As part of the fundraiser there will be a Little Free Libraries live auction.

Little Free Libraries are a free-exchange community library that people may place in their yards or businesses.

Libraries ROCC is accepting donations of little free libraries built by community members and businesses as well as reading-themed birdhouses.

For more details on building and donating a little free library, contact your local library.

Ticket price includes light desserts, refreshments, and the program of a silent auction and live auction.

Tickets are $15 at the
