Learn how to prune fruit trees, berries

Master gardeners hold workshop on Saturday

ILWACO, Wash. — Learn the secrets of pruning. On Saturday, Feb. 25, Pacific County master gardeners will sponsor their first 2017 workshop, Backyard Pruning for Fruit Trees and Berries, at the Columbia Pacific Heritage Museum in Ilwaco.

Pruning is vital to plant health and reinvigorates plants. Now is the time to effectively prune ahead of spring.

At this workshop, taking place from 10 to 11:30 a.m., participants will learn to prune effectively and safely.

Attendees should dress for the weather. After the workshop, join master gardeners as they practice pruning outdoors in the museum's native plant Discovery Garden, located behind the museum's parking lot. The museum is located on 115 SE Lake St.

The Washington State University Extension Service's Master Gardeners of Pacific County continue their fifth year of sponsoring a series of gardening workshops in conjunction with the Columbia Pacific Heritage Museum.

The intent of this joint venture is to renovate and maintain a Pacific County master gardener garden at the museum.

Preview award-winning festival wines

ASTORIA — Each year, approximately 40 Oregon winemakers enter their wines in the Crab, Seafood & Wine Festival wine competition, the results of which are highly anticipated.

If you can't wait for the April festival to find out who the winners are, then you should attend UnWined, an Astoria-Warrenton Area Chamber of Commerce event that lets guests sip and savor award-winning wines immediately following the wine competition.

UnWined takes place 5:30 to 8 p.m. March 4 in the Paulson Pavilion and McTavish Room, located upstairs in the Liberty Theater, at 1203 Commercial St.

At UnWined, guests get the chance to mingle with the wine judges to learn more about Oregon wine. Guests can sample wines and delicious appetizers while listening to live music by violinist Rory Holbrook.

Best of Show for red and white wines will be announced, and attendees will be encouraged to cast their vote for the People's Choice Award.

Tickets are on sale for $35 and include a commemorative glass, 10 wine tastes and catered appetizers. This is a 21-and-old event. Purchase tickets online at oldoregon.com or at the chamber of commerce office, 111 W. Marine Drive.

Contact Event Coordinator Kelsey Balensifer at kelsey@oldoregon.com or 503-325-6311 if you'd like to volunteer at the event.
