

OBITUARIES

Dorothy Irene Nadon

Astoria

May 14, 1923 — Feb. 16, 2017

Dorothy Irene Nadon was born in Hebo, Oregon, on May 14, 1923, to Lloyd and Nora Kellow. She passed away on Feb. 16, 2017, at the perfect age of 93, at home in Astoria, Oregon.

Dorothy was raised on the Oregon North Coast in Astoria with her six siblings, and learned at an early age to nurture and care for those around her.

After graduating from high school she went on to earn her degree in nursing from the University of Portland. A couple of her favorite memories were working as a nurse in obstetrics, bringing new life into the world, and then going on to instill her passion and love for those in need, as she taught her students to become the best nursing assistants they could be.

She met and married the love of her life, Gene R. Nadon, in Astoria, on Oct. 31, 1948, where they created a home of love and welcomed their four children. While Dorothy loved to read a good book or join the ladies on the golf course for a round of golf, she was an avid Seahawks fan, and you know where you could find her on Sunday afternoons. There was a time where Dorothy had the opportunity, and was able to provide and take care of her in-laws while living in the warmth of Sun City, Arizona, for 35 years.

Dorothy is survived by her sisters, Lee Kellow of Woodburn, Oregon, Lois and George Shull of Lake Oswego, Oregon, and Glenda and Richard Collins of Salem, Oregon; children, Jackie and Tom Svensen of Gearhart, Oregon, Tom and Sue Nadon of Chelan, Washington, Barbara and Bob Harn of Astoria, Oregon, and Bob and Patricia Nadon of Bend, Oregon; grandchildren, Kris and Jade Svensen of Astoria, Oregon, Adam and Melissa Svensen of Astoria, Oregon, Lindsay Harn of Wellington, New Zealand, Meagan Harn of San Jose, California, Sara Nadon of Everett, Washington, Courtney Nadon of Spokane, Washington, and Kyle Nadon of Seattle, Washington; great-grandchildren, Emry and Everlie Svensen of Astoria, Oregon, Hailey and Kilee Svensen of Astoria, Oregon, Ana Rodriguez of South Carolina, Lily Fitzpatrick of Everett, Washington, and Jaxon and Kellen Nadon of Spokane, Washington; and numerous nieces and nephews.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Gene R. Nadon; her parents, Lloyd and Nora (Meyers) Kellow; and her brothers, Howard Kellow, Forrest Kellow and Merle Kellow.

Astoria School Board calls for nominations for top employees

The Daily Astorian

The Astoria School Board, in partnership with the Astoria School Foundation, is accepting nominations for the second-annual A Tradition of Excellence staff recognition program.

A Tradition of Excellence recognizes one faculty, one support staff member and a team collaboration. A nomination committee made up of faculty, staff, administrators and a school board member review applications and select winners.

The Classified/Support Staff Member of the Year will honor someone who demonstrates excellence in work performance, school and community involvement, leadership and commitment to the district. The Certified Staff Member of the Year recognizes a faculty member who inspires, motivates, encourages and helps students excel in school, while advancing the mission of the district.

"The vision of the Astoria School District is that every student acquires the knowledge and skills they need to successfully and confidently transition through each level of our learning community," reads the district's mission statement. "Our students emerge as engaged life-long learners and citizens of a greater community.

They are fully prepared for the demands of life having been provided with a challenging and comprehensive academic program."

The Collaboration Recognition Award honors a group of teachers who demonstrate teamwork, exemplary work performance and work together to positively impact student learning.

Nomination applications are available at www.astoria.k12.or.us. Paper copies are also available in each school district building. Applications can be turned into the District Office at 785 Alameda Ave. by April 10. For more information, call 503-325-6441.
