Volunteer to be a trolley driver and conductor

The Daily Astorian

April 10 through May 28

• Noon to 6 p.m. daily May 29 through September 4.

The Astoria Riverfront Trolley Association needs volunteers to be conductors and/or motormen to work one or more three-hour shifts per month. All volunteers learn the conductor's duties, but those who wish to operate the trolley undergo additional training and certification.

The trolley schedule is as follows, weather permitting:

• Noon to 6 p.m. daily beginning March 24 through April 9

• Noon to 6 p.m. Friday, Saturday, and Sunday only

Conductors get a chance to tell visitors Astoria's history, what places to visit, where to eat and what things to do, and have an opportunity to talk to people about what makes Astoria a great place to visit and live. Those who wish to be a motorman, and only want to operate Old 300 and never use the microphone, are encouraged to find a full-time conductor to team up with.

Anyone interested in volunteering can call 503-325-6311 for information.

Dog lovers invited to Angel on a Leash

The Daily Astorian

WARRENTON — The Angel on a Leash Friend-Raiser is 5:30 to 8 p.m. Thursday at the Astoria Golf and Country Club, 33445 Sunset Beach Lane. The event provides an opportunity to learn about the Providence Seaside Hospital therapy dog program, how to support the program by registering to become a therapy dog handler and to meet- and- greet David and Cheryl Frei and their dogs, Angel and Grace. All dog lovers are welcome.

Providence Seaside Hospital recently introduced four-legged volunteers to its campus, and they're gaining popularity with each visit. Therapy dogs emphasize care of the whole person by acknowledging and affirming a emotional, physical and spiritual connection to animals and its interconnectedness to health and healing, a press release stated.

That was exactly the plan when the Freis created the Angel on a Leash pet therapy program years ago for hospital and clinical settings. Cheryl Frei is the director of mission integration and spiritual care, and David was the first volunteer handler to bring a therapy dog to the patients in Seaside.

The event is free, and Angel on a Leash books will be available for signing.
