

Lady Gulls: 'We wanted to win it for each other'

No one could have predicted an 18-2 run to start the fourth, but that's what happened — in Seaside's favor.

Two free throws by Villegas and a layup by Ideue started the rally, and the Gulls were on their way.

The running game opened up, and Villegas found herself on the finishing end, as the senior — held scoreless over the first three quarters — scored 12 points in the final period, including 10 in a 14-0 run by the Gulls that pushed their lead from 39-37 to 53-37.

Marshfield did not even score until a 3-pointer from Jazmin Chavez as time expired.

Other than a few bright spots during Saturday's game, it was a rough tournament and a brutal two days for the young Pirates, who had four sophomores in their starting lineup.

One night after Marshfield went 2-for-22 from the 3-point line (and 6-for-49 overall) in a Friday loss to Banks, the Pirates were 4-for-30 from the 3-point line in the loss to the Gulls, 14-of-64 overall.

"We really stepped up in the fourth quarter," said Utti, who had 16 points, 15 rebounds, six assists, three steals and three blocks, and was named Seaside's Player of the Game. "Everyone hit the important shots that they needed to, and we were flying around on defense. I think (the Pirates) were fatigued, and we were in better shape."

Hawes, meanwhile, left it up to his seniors.

"It's Maddi, Sydney and Lucy — their last game," he said. "We just said, 'be heroic.' I know you're tired, and I knew (Marshfield) would be. So we weathered that little stretch at the end of the second quarter."

Utti finished her high school career the way she wanted, before she heads off for Fresno State.

"We're really excited and happy with the way we played," she said. "We were ready to come back stronger and better (after Friday's loss to Sutherlin)."

"It was a tough loss, not making it to the finals. It was an emotional game for all of us. We definitely talked about it. It was really emotional for all three of (the seniors). We knew today was going to be the last time we were going to play together, and we wanted to win it for each other. Made history."

Strictly Stricklin

Sutherlin won Friday's Final Four game with one of the tournament's all-time best shooting performances, from Bulldog senior Taylor Stricklin.

Seaside built a 31-27 half-time lead, thanks to 12 first half points from Utti. But Sutherlin's 6-foot guard knocked down three straight 3-pointers to start the third quarter, and hit two more midway through the second half as the Bulldogs extended their lead to 49-36.

The Gulls closed to within 7-of-8 free throws in the final minutes to close it out. The Bulldogs finished 11-of-29 from the 3-point line.

Utti had 19 points and Villegas added 14 for Seaside, while Stricklin had 24 and Harlee Baker tossed in 18 for Sutherlin, which would overcome an 18-point deficit Saturday night to beat Banks, giving the Bulldogs their fourth straight state championship.

"Although the Stricklin girl made tremendous shots, we threw the ball away for about two minutes at the end of the second quarter to let them right back in the ball game," Hawes said.

Utti also had four assists and three steals, as Seaside's Player of the Game.
