End hunger one bowl at a time

Peninsula holds ninth Empty Bowls event March 18

SEAVIEW, Wash. — Help feed the hungry on the Long Beach Peninsula. The ninth annual Empty Bowls Event will be held from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday, March 18 at the Peninsula Church Center, located at 5000 N. Place.

Enjoy a lunch of soup and bread while supporting local charities that feed the hungry in the community.

Local artists and elementary and secondary students have made stoneware bowls for this fundraiser. Each bowl is unique and handmade. Bowls are $10 each, and the soup and bread is donated by local restaurants and bakers. You get to keep the bowl. All proceeds go to feed the hungry on the Long Beach Peninsula.

The pottery creation is led by local potter Karen Brownlee, who works with all classes. Students shape their bowls, decorate and glaze them under Brownlee's tutelage with the help of community volunteers. View pictures of the process at <https://www.facebook.com/events/164631947359700/>

Some families simply can't afford to buy their child's bowl. There is a GoFundMe account if you would like to make a donation to this year's Empty Bowls Project so that children's bowls can go back to their families. Visit <https://www.gofundme.com/pdny5nhe>
