

SPORTS

CONTACT US
 Gary Henley | Sports Reporter
 ghenley@dailyastorian.com

FOLLOW US
 facebook.com/
 DailyAstorianSports

Seagull hitters fly past Elma

The Daily Astorian

SEASIDE — The Seaside baseball team opened the 2017 season over the weekend, as the Gulls hosted their annual pre-season tournament at Broadway Field.

In three games, Seaside finished with one win, one loss and a tie.

With a strict time limit, Fort Vancouver, Wash., and Seaside played to a 2-2 tie Saturday, although the Gulls had a runner at second with one out when the action was stopped in the fifth inning.

Seaside bounced back Sunday morning with a 10-1 win over Elma, Wash., as senior Brent Walsh pitched four innings of no-hit baseball.

Dawson Blanchard highlighted the offensive attack, going 3-for-4 with two doubles, two runs scored and four RBIs. Dylan Meyer added a two-run double and Scotty Plampin had an RBI single.

The win put Seaside into Sunday night's championship game against Hockinson, which scored a 16-3 win over the Gulls.

Walsh had a double, followed by a two-run home run by Blanchard.

The Gulls return to action Tuesday at home vs. Estacada.

SPORTS IN BRIEF

Brady's AWOL Super Bowl jersey found

Associated Press

NEW YORK — The search for Tom Brady's missing Super Bowl jersey is over.

The NFL says it was in "possession of a credentialed member of the international media." The league did not elaborate in its statement on specifically who had it.

The NFL says the jersey was found through the "cooperation of the NFL and New England Patriots' security teams, the FBI and other law enforcement authorities." The league referred other questions to the FBI.

Brady said his jersey went missing after the Patriots' 34-28 win last month over the Atlanta Falcons.

The statement adds that an ongoing investigation also resulted in the retrieval of the jersey Brady wore in the Patriots' 2015 Super Bowl win against the Seattle Seahawks.

SCOREBOARD

PREP SCHEDULE

TODAY

Baseball — Sandy at Astoria (Tapiola), 5 p.m.

Softball — R.A. Long at Astoria (CMH), 3 p.m.; Knappa at Warrenton, 3:30 p.m.

Boys Golf — Astoria at Molalla, Noon

TUESDAY

Baseball — St. Helens at Astoria (Tapiola), 4 p.m.; Estacada at Seaside, 5 p.m.

Softball — Yamhill-Carlton at Astoria (CMH), 5:30 p.m.; Seaside at Estacada, 4:30 p.m.

Boys Golf — Astoria at Scappoose, 1 p.m.

Girls Golf — Tillamook Invitational, 12:30 p.m.

THURSDAY

Softball — Astoria at Mark Morris, 4 p.m.

Track — Warrenton at Ilwaco, 3:30 p.m.; NWL Relays, at Columbia Christian, 4 p.m.

FRIDAY

Baseball — Astoria at Stayton, 4:30 p.m.; Cascade at Seaside, 4:30 p.m.

SATURDAY

Baseball — Regis at Warrenton (2), 1 p.m.

Softball — Seaside at Warrenton (2), Noon

Pizazz dance team finishes fifth at state

Emily Madsen/Submitted Photo

TOP ROW FROM LEFT TO RIGHT: Maia Mahoney, Patience Womack, Elizabeth Varner, Julia Jenkins, Daphne Frost and Jackie Everts. BOTTOM ROW FROM LEFT: Liberty Olsen, Ally Berger and Nara Van de Grift.

The Daily Astorian

PORTLAND — The Astoria High School dance team, Pizazz, finished fifth at the OSAA/U.S. Bank Oregon State Dance Team Championships at Memorial Coliseum, Saturday night.

The team of nine students performed their tate dance to "Requiem for a Dream," in black dresses. The performance was choreographed by assistant coach Emily Madsen.

Stayton won the team championship for the 4A/3A/2A/1A level, with a final point total of 91.33.

Valley Catholic was second with a 90.95, followed by Scappoose (79.72), Marshfield (77.70), Astoria (76.30), Gladstone (75.62) and Crook County (72.50).

The choreography was based on ballet and contemporary dance styles, and garnered high points for the dancers' technique, and interpretation of the of the music.

The dance team competition season began at Gresham High School in February, with the team coming away with a first-place trophy, and qualifying the team to enter the state competition.

Other competitions were at Tigard High School and Liberty High School.

Astoria team members are: seniors Ally Berger, Patience Womack and Julia Jenkins; juniors Maia Mahoney and Daphne Frost; sophomores Nara Van de Grift and Jackie Everts; and freshmen Liberty Olsen and Elizabeth Varner.

The head coach is Jeanne Peterson, and assistant coaches Madsen and Kelly Eckstein.

Dance team parents take an active part in assisting the team, with Linda Berger and April Olsen in charge of hair and makeup; and Betsy Mahoney and Lidia Jenkins in charge of meals, assisted by Theresa Varner.

Tim and Jeanine Van de Grift, Meredith Reilly, Julie Frost and Chris Womack assist with supplies and trips.

Debbie Barbic provides costume assistance.

"We are so grateful to so many people, who have helped support our fundraisers, sponsors, plus our school administrators, Lynn Jackson (principal), Howard Rub (athletic director) and Kevin Goin (activities director), who take a great interest in supporting the dance team program" Peterson said.

Seaside golfers fifth in season opener

The Daily Astorian

THE DALLES — A young Seaside boys golf team finished seventh out of 10 teams at The Dalles Invitational Friday, in their first meet of the season.

The Gulls shot a 397 at The Dalles Country Club, where sophomore Connor Merrell led Seaside with a 93, followed by another sophomore, Samson Sibony, with a 96.

The Gulls' oldest player, junior Jackson Kunde, shot 100 followed by two more sophomores, Mason Shamion (108) and Mason Crawford (115).

The Dalles ran away with the team title with a 316, far ahead of second-place Pendleton (361), followed by Hermiston (365), Canby (382), Goldendale (383), La Grande (388), Seaside (397) and St. Helens (401). Hood River and Horizon Christian did not have complete teams.

"This was a good test for our young guys," said Seaside coach Jim Poetsch. "The course was not in real good condition with the winter they had, and it is a tough course to begin with. Besides the home team, only five players were able to break 90 today. "Connor was only a few strokes off joining that elite group," he said. "He has worked hard during the offseason and I expect him to get a little better each week as the season progresses. This course points out any flaws in your game, and today it showed us we have some work to do."

"But for as young as we are, we only scored a few higher than last year," he said. "I'm hoping this group sees their potential to be a good team and works to reach that goal this year."

Seaside hosts Valley Catholic at Gearhart Golf Links Tuesday.

On to Sweet 16: Oregon rallies late to beat URI

By JANIE MCCAULEY
 Associated Press

SACRAMENTO, Calif. — Once the game ended and Oregon had narrowly advanced with a hard-fought NCAA Tournament win, Tyler Dorsey considered his two missed free throws with 3:36 left and how there might have been no celebrations at all.

Instead, Dorsey delivered two clutch 3-pointers to send the Ducks back to the Sweet Sixteen for a second straight year and third in five years.

Dorsey hit a contested go-ahead 3-pointer from the top of the arc with 38.4 seconds to play, then E.C. Matthews airballed a long 3 in the waning moments trying to force overtime, and third-seeded Oregon rallied in the second half to beat upstart No. 11 Rhode Island 75-72 on Sunday and reach the Midwest Regional.

"During the game I had to let it go. There was 2 minutes left, I dropped them and I had to keep playing, and we kept playing and kept fighting and hit the glass and got crucial offensive rebounds," Dorsey said. "I just hit some big shots."

With Oregon's season on the brink, Dorsey and Dillon Brooks came through in the clutch as they have so many times this season.

Dorsey also tied the game with a 3 with 1:45 remaining on the way to 27 points before Brooks took a charge on the other end for Oregon (31-5).

Brooks found his shooting stroke as he typically does and scored 19 points despite a 7-for-20 shooting day. Dorsey made 9 of 10 shots with four 3-pointers.

Rhode Island nearly scrapped and hustled its way into the next round, with Stanford Robinson matching his career high of 21 points as the Rams (25-10) had their nine-game winning streak snapped to end the season.

AP Photo/Steve Yeater

Oregon guard Photo Dennis celebrates after the team scored during the first half against Rhode Island in a second-round game of the NCAA men's college basketball tournament in Sacramento, Calif., Sunday.

Dorsey missed two free throws with 3:36 left but made up for it.

The Ducks led early behind Dorsey's fast start, but Rhode Island grabbed momentum late in the first half.

URI closed the first half on a 14-2 run — including 7-0 over the final 1:30 with Matthews' three-point play at 52.6 — in the last 3:23.

Robinson helped the bench contribute 30 points.

Beavers back in the Sweet 16 after win

By ANNE M. PETERSON
 Associated Press

CORVALLIS — Sydney Wiese celebrated her final game at Gill Coliseum by blowing kisses to the crowd and dancing to Abba.

She got a win, too, so her senior season lives on.

Wiese scored 13 points and second-seeded Oregon State moved on in the NCAA Tournament with a 64-52 second-round victory over No. 7 seed Creighton on Sunday.

Oregon State (31-4) will go on to face third-seeded Florida State in Stockton, California. The Seminoles defeated six-seeded Missouri 77-55 earlier Sunday in Tallahassee, Florida, for their third straight trip to the Sweet 16.

Fellow senior Gabriella Hanson also had 13 points for the Beavers, who are making a fourth consecutive appearance in the tournament. Last season the Beavers advanced to the Final Four before falling to eventual champion UConn.

At center court after the game, Wiese and her teammates celebrated with the home crowd. Wiese danced to "Dancing Queen."

"There's a lot of emotions because we have poured so much into that place," Wiese said. "It will always have a special place in our hearts and it will play be home."

Hanson, who matched her season high for points, said: "It still hasn't hit me yet." In the postgame huddle, coach Scott Rueck handed Hanson the ball.

Sydney Lamberty had 19 for Creighton (24-8), which trailed by

AP Photo/Timothy J. Gonzalez

Creighton's Jaylyn Agnew (5) tries to stop Oregon State's Sydney Wiese (24) from getting to the basket during the first half of a second-round game in the women's NCAA college basketball tournament Sunday in Corvallis.

as many as 15 points.

Lamberty's layup pulled Bluejays within 54-48 with 6:42 left, putting Creighton's bench on its feet. Hanson and Mikayla Pivec each hit jumpers to answer for the Beavers.

Marissa Janning's jumper got Creighton back within single digits, but Kolbie Orum's baseline jumper gave the Beavers a 60-50 lead with 3:04 to go.

After a pair of Creighton free throws, Marie Gulich made consecutive layups for a 64-52 Oregon State lead — and the Bluejays couldn't catch up.