Deanne Johnson grew up in Phoenix and Orange County in Southern California. She received a bachelor's in art education from Northern Arizona University and did graduate studies at Arizona State University in special education.

She started pet portraiture with "Greta," her blue Weimaraner and followed with "Maggie," the cat, and with Deanne's passion for animals, word spread quickly. She is now well known in the Gearhart community, having completed more than 60 portraits. Johnson's portraits have been a successful part of A Great Gallery since it opened in 2013.
