Author Diana Kirk comes to KALA

ASTORIA — Author Diana Kirk, a new Astoria resident, is coming to KALA for a show at 8 p.m. Friday, April 21, to discuss her new book, "Licking Flames: Tales of a Half-Assed Hussy." Doors open at 7:30 p.m. and admission is $8 at the door.

Kirk, who was recently interviewed on National Public Radio, will share stories from her life, "a life filled with authenticity, when we all didn't quite fit in a neat box while coming into our own as an adult.

It'll be funny, sad, sentimental, disturbing, adventurous and above all else, brutally honest," according to press materials.

Portland writer Celeste Gurevich, who has been published in Perceptions: A Magazine for the Arts, will kick off the show.

Afterward, there will be a book signing, some socializing and a complimentary dessert. Cocktails will be available.

For more information, call KALA (1017 Marine Drive) at 503-338-4878.
