

'EVERYTHING FITZ!' TO STAGE ENCORE SHOW

RAYMOND, WASH. — Sunday Afternoon Live will present an encore performance of Everything Fitz!, a popular family band with energetic fiddle-playing and percussive step-dancing, at 2 p.m. Sunday, April 23 at the Raymond Theatre (323 Third St.).

The band's stage show, which has roots in Canadian old-time fiddle tradition and Ottawa Valley step-dancing, combines diverse musical styles, such as "traditional jigs and reels, bluegrass, jazz and swing standards, Celtic, gospel and novelty numbers as well as intricate choreographed dance routines," according to press materials.

Tickets are $15 at the door, $12 in advance at the Theater, Raymond Pharmacy and South Bend Pharmacy. For more ticket information, call 360-875-5207.

'To Kill a Mockingbird' auditions in Tillamook

TILLAMOOK — The Tillamook Association for the Performing Arts will be holding auditions for the play "To Kill a Mockingbird" at 2 p.m. Saturday, April 22, and 2 p.m. Sunday, April 23, at the Oregon Coast Dance Center (106 Main Ave., Tillamook).

The stage adaptation by

Christopher Sergel contains the same warmth and humor as Harper Lee's 1960 novel while tackling the story's themes of racial inequality and innocence lost.

The association is looking for 12 men and eight women, including roles for one girl and two boys.

Directed by Richard Coon, the show will run July 14 through 29.

An audition flier with more cast and production information is available at www.tillamooktheater.com. For additional details, email info@tillamooktheater.com, or call Coon at 503-842-4678.

Former Oregon poet laureate visits

SEASIDE — Paulann Petersen, Oregon's poet laureate from 2010 to 2014, will read at Beach Books at 7 p.m. Saturday, April 22.

A former Stegner Fellow at Stanford University, Petersen's poems have been published in Poetry, The New Republic, Prairie Schooner and Wilderness Magazine.

Paulann Petersen

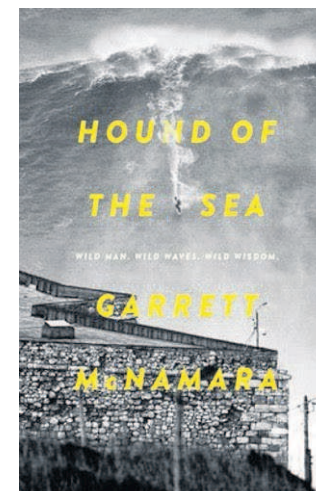

Author offers a new book on big wave surfer

SEASIDE — Karen Karbo, the award-winning author of a new book about big wave surfer Garrett "GMac" McNamara, will visit Seaside Library's Community Room at 7 p.m. Thursday, April 27. Beach Books will host a book sale and book signing there as well.

Karbo's book, "Hound of the Sea: Wild Man, Wild Waves, Wild Wisdom," is "the thrilling and candid memoir of world record-holding and controversial Big Wave surfer Garrett McNamara as he chronicles his emotional quest to ride the most formidable waves on earth," according to press materials.

McNamara set the world record for the sport in 2011, when he rode a 78-foot wave in Nazaré, Portugal. He broke that record two years later at the same break.

Karbo, who lives in Portland, has written several books. Her essays and short stories have appeared in Elle, Vogue, Esquire and The New York Times.

The event is presented by Friends of the Seaside Library. For more information, visit www.seasidelibrary.org or call 503-738-6742.

The Franklin Apartments

Providing Elegance & Efficiency to Downtown Astoria for Over 100 Years

1432 Franklin Avenue
Easom Property Management, Inc.

503-325-5678

Coaster Theatre Playhouse

Barefoot in the Park

By Neil Simon

May 5 - 28, 2017

Tickets $20 or $25
Shows begin at 7:30 p.m.
Sunday May 7 & 21
shows at 3:00p.m.

Sponsored by Becker Capital Management

Tickets: 503-436-1242 or coastertheatre.com
108 N Hemlock Street, Cannon Beach, OR