CARRIE CUNNINGHAM

Friday • 4 - 6:15 PM • Exhibit Hall Stage

Carrie Cunningham is an authentic, sultry, slightly twisted and totally believable voice on the New Country/Americana scene. She has a new EP out called "Secrets", which is currently #2 on the Independent country music charts. She has had singles reach #1 in Europe, and has had three releases from other artists this year. Look for an acoustic performance at the festival.

BETWEEN THE LINES

Friday • 6:30 - 8:45 PM • Exhibit Hall Stage

Steve Dean and Cara Graham Hogan are the songwriting duo, Between the Lines. Both are seasoned music industry professionals with very different backgrounds and exposure to music. Together, they have a unique contemporary sound with a touch of nostalgia. Steve has written nine #1 hits and Cara is an entrepreneur/business owner, has represented artists in management, and has been a part of the marketing and entertainment relations team for Gibson/Epiphone for many years.

THOM LYONS

Friday • 4 - 6 PM • Food Tent

Thom Lyons is a singer-songwriter, born and raised in London, who in 2011, packed a suitcase and a guitar and traveled to start a new life in the beautiful city of Portland. Employing a combination of beautifully crafted songs and a staggering voice that can jump from a weathered baritone to a soaring falsetto, Thom has been winning over audiences on both sides of the Atlantic.

STEVE HALE & THE SUPER SOUL HEROES

Friday • 6:30 - 8:45 PM • Food Tent

Steve Hale & The Super Soul Heroes deliver familiar delicious beats and scrumptious melodies dressed in unique and colorful arrangements of funk-i-fied soul-a-rrific-ness, as well as a delectable dash of originals to zestify your mind and inspire your body to move, your cares to melt away and your hungry ears to be fed with tasty audio treats! The experience and musical talent of these collected creatures of soul go far and wide and deep into the pocket of the groove.

BIGFOOT MOJO

Saturday • 1 - 2:45 PM • Exhibit Hall Stage

Upright bassist Belinda Underwood and national mandolin champion Josiah Payne met on the bluegrass scene in Portland, Ore., as hired hands in other bands. After playing together for 3 years as "Josiah and Belinda", they adopted the mascot of the Northwest and became Bigfoot Mojo. Songwriters and multi-instrumentalists, they have many creative offerings. Josiah and Belinda continue to mesmerize audiences with groove-based melodies and impeccable vocal harmonies (the kind that sound genetically-blended), setting a new standard for original music.
