Vasa Lodge enjoys Swedish lunches at Tongue Point

Astor Vasa Lodge No. 215 of Astoria enjoyed a lunch and cooking demonstration April 12 at the Tongue Point Job Corps Center culinary dining area. Instructor Harley Badger had students demonstrate food preparations for the lodge's pea soup recipe and Badger's family potato sausage recipe.

Students prepped and cooked for the group of about 30 lodge members and guests. The lunch was Swedish from coffee to lingonberry cheesecake. Chef Badger explained the student training process and training sites in the Astoria area. He also told of his youth, growing up in a Vasa Lodge with his family and Swedish foods.

The luncheon joined two Swedish lodges, one disbanded and one still active, to share old photos and stories after the meal.
