

SUBMITTED PHOTO

Learn how to make small baskets with native materials at the next WEBS program.

Basket-making puts the 'fun' in 'functional art'

NETARTS — The next Friends of Netarts Bay Watershed, Estuary, Beach and Sea community program teaches basket-making techniques using native materials and will be held 1 to 4 p.m. Saturday, May 6.

Connie Graves, of the Confederated Tribes of the Grand Ronde, will share her work and "explain the art and purpose of basket making," according to press materials.

Participants must register for more information, including the event location. The program is limited to 20 participants. Links are available on WEB's Facebook and Eventbrite pages.

The Friends group is a nonprofit "working to sustain the Netarts Bay area through education and stewardship." Learn more at www.netartsbaytoday.org.

For questions, contact Executive Director Chrissy Smith at Smith_Chrissy22@yahoo.com or call 541-231-8041.

Comedy, parody, satire and surrealism in 'This Show is Not Yet Titled'

ASTORIA — The Astor Street Opry Company (129 West Bond St.) presents "This Show is Not Yet Titled," a one-man show — full of comedy, parody, satire and some surrealism — written by and starring William Ham, a local actor and KMUN personality.

Performance are 7 p.m., Friday, May 5, and Saturday, May 6; and Friday, May 12, and Saturday, May 13.

Doors opens 30 minutes before each performance.

Tickets are $10. For tickets, call 503-325-6104, or visit www.astorstreetoprycompany.com.

The Astor Street Opry Company
Presents

"This Show is Not Yet Titled"

Comedy - Satire - Parody
with a dab of Surrealism
Written and Performed
by

William Ham

May 5-6 & 12-13

All Seat

$10

Tickets (503) 325-6104

www.astorstreetoprycompany.com

2017 SPRING GARDEN SEMINAR AND PLANT SALE

CLIMATE CHANGE — GARDENING FOR THE FUTURE
CLATSOP COUNTY MASTER GARDENER ASSOCIATION

SEMINAR SPEAKERS

- 9am: Climate Change & NW Oregon Gardens by Chip Bubl
- 11am: Dry Farming in the Home Garden by Theresa Retzlaff
- 1pm: Gardening to Save Bee Colonies by Thom Trusewicz

SATURDAY, MAY 13

8:30AM - 4PM

CLATSOP COUNTY
FAIRGROUNDS

FREE ADMISSION

HUGE PLANT SALE! EXPERT SPEAKERS! GARDEN VENDORS!
RAFFLES! KIDS' ACTIVITIES! AND MORE!

The Coaster presents Neil Simon's odd (married) couple

CANNON BEACH — "Barefoot in the Park," the romantic-comedy by Neil Simon (best known for "The Odd Couple"), opens at the Coaster Theatre Playhouse at 7:30 p.m. Friday, May 5, and runs through Sunday, May 28.

Simon's play follows a pair of newlyweds,

Corie and Paul, as they begin married life in a small apartment in a Manhattan brownstone. They learn that marriage isn't as easy as it looks, and must reconcile their differences — he is a straight-arrow lawyer, she a spontaneous free-spirit — while contending with a less-than-perfect house, an oddball neighbor and Corie's well-meaning mother.

Directed by Sheila Shaffer, and starring Katherine Lacaze and Richard Bowman as the young couple, the play, if it were a movie, would be rated PG for mild adult themes, the Coaster cautioned.