ART WALK

May 13
5 to 8 p.m.

ASTORIA — Downtown merchants and galleries will hold the Second Saturday Art Walk from 5 to 8 p.m. Saturday, May 13. Meet artists and mingle with art lovers while enjoying refreshments and new exhibitions. Some locations open earlier or later.

ART BUSINESSES

1. Astoria Art Loft

106 Third St.

Celebrate the return of the sun with artists at the Astoria Art Loft. May features a variety of artwork by North Coast artists and includes realism, abstract and non-objective pieces in a variety of media.

2. WineKraft

80 10th St. (Pier 11)

WineKraft is featuring work from six local artists, as well as live music with The Swing Cats of Astoria starting at 7 p.m. Sip wine, eat and enjoy the arts. WineKraft is the perfect location for you to wrap up your art walking.

3. KALA @ Hipfish

1017 Marine Dr.

AVA presents the Art of Resistance through Monday, June 5. View work that highlights issues of environment, social justice and politics. The exhibition features the current art of AVA Artist-In-Residence, Terry Robinett. Also on display: Annie Eskelin, Roger Hayes, Bill Atwood, Sid Deluca, Laurie Fleet, Linden, Mariah Manners, Cynthia Lahti, Sarah Lippold, Joi Smith, Pooka Rice, Valerie Whittlesey, Agnes Field, Cathy Nist, Nancy Cook, Anna Lee Larimore, Julie Roger, Charlotte Bruhn, John Wecker, Erika Hawkins, Judith Niland and KA Hughes.

4. Bumble Art Studio

230 10th St.

Bumble Art Studio will host a free children's arts-and-crafts session. Stop by and see our new community-centered art studio. Stay and create a spring-themed craft, or paint while enjoying refreshments.

5. The Fox and The Fawn

1008 Commercial St.

The Fox and the Fawn, an upscale, resale boutique, features a variety of reasonably priced new and gently worn clothing. Ayla DeCoraggio, the shop's owner, can offer style advice guaranteed to make you shine. Beautiful Turkish rugs adorn the walls as you ascend the staircase to find an assortment of jewelry, books and household items.

6. AVA Artist-in-Residence

80 11th St. (above Edison Fish Market)

Andie Sterling, an Astoria Visual Arts artist, will project her stop-motion animation and present other projects in a studio at the foot of 11th Street near the waterfront. The studio is above the former fish market across the Astoria Riverfront Trolley tracks from the Wet Dog Cafe & Brewery.

7. Imogen Gallery

240 11th St.

Printmaker Gin Laughery, a longtime Astoria resident, returns for her second solo show at Imogen. Laughery, who recently relocated to Central Oregon, brings a rich collection of monotype prints exploring imagery through abstraction and dramatic use of color.

8. CARGO

240 11th St.

Is spring in the air? In case you didn't know, Cargo has many unique artifacts from all around the globe. Just look upon the upper parts of our walls...

9. Forsythea Home & Garden Arts

1124 Commercial St.

Annie Eskelin opens a new show at Forsythea during the Art Walk. Her mixed-media work is inspired by intuitive mark making and coastal imagery.

10. Luminari Arts

1133 Commercial St.

Luminari Arts presents live acoustic music by "Birds of a Feather," a duo performing original and familiar tunes. The featured artist is George Carruth, presenting indoor-outdoor sculptural art.

11. RiverSea Gallery

1160 Commercial St.

Two shows are happening at RiverSea Gallery. Meet the artists at the reception from 5 to 8 p.m.

In "Hope is the Thing with Feathers," twenty members of Print Arts Northwest interpret the show's theme. Birds, feathers and nests abound in a diverse array of artistic expression and printmaking techniques. Showing in the Alcove is Mark O'Malley, a self-taught painter from Washington whose charmingly simple paintings on wooden puzzles pay homage to the mix of upscale and down-at-heel in Astoria's urban environs.

12. The Art Stall

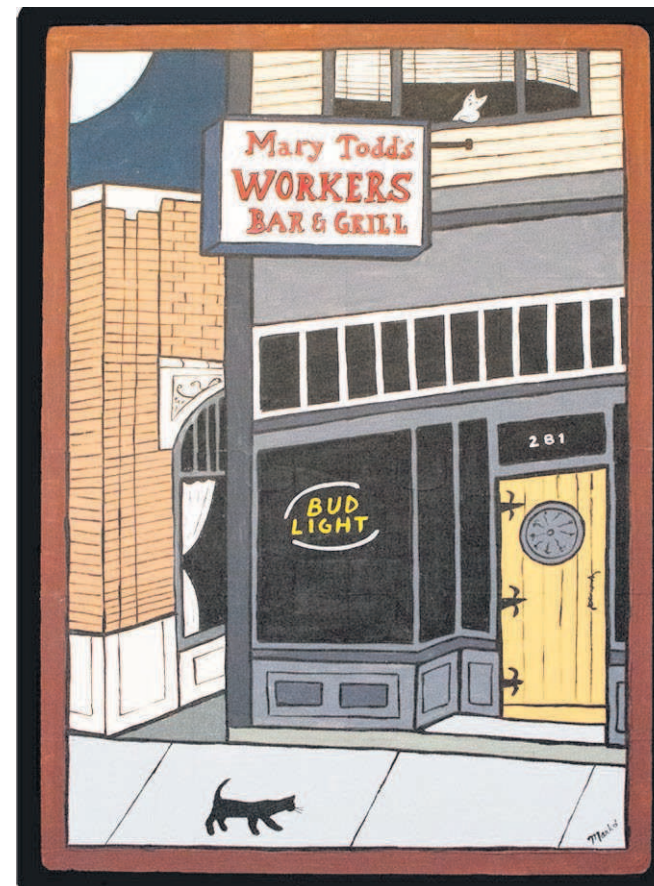

1268 Commercial St.

The Art Stall features local artists' original works. We now are 21 artists with 270-plus pieces of work in a variety of mediums, from bronze to ink drawing, fused glass to mosaics.

13. TEMPO Gallery

1271 Commercial St.

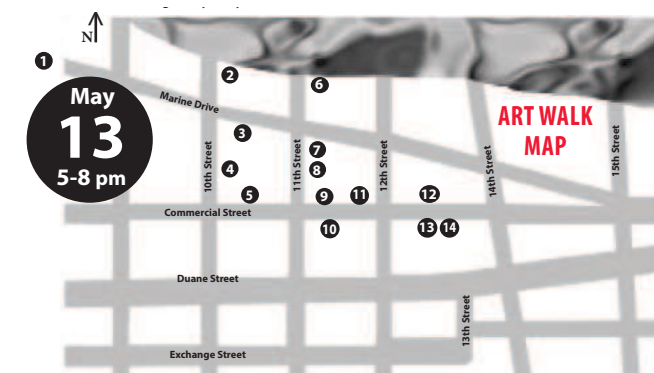

Tempo is showing new photographs by Carol Smith in an exhibition titled "Puertas y Perros: Adventures

"Mary Todd's" by Mark O'Malley, on display at RiverSea Gallery.

"April Visitors" by Leslie Cheney-Parr, on display at RiverSea Gallery.

in El Salvador." Her new work depicts scenes from her recent visit. Stop by and visit with Carol 5 to 8 p.m. Listen to Dave Drury on guitar 6 to 7 p.m.

14. Old Town Framing Company

1287 Commercial St.

We present "Gearhart Family Affair," by Maggie Shumaker and Corrie Pedersen. Shumaker is best known for her ZenFish, brightly decorated wooden fish with new designs and a new painting technique that is super-cool. Pedersen has all kinds of talents, including drawings, paintings and fantastic mermaid hats.
