Church's tea and luncheon turns 15

ROSEBURG, WASH. — Grays River Methodist Church Friendship Circle's Spring Tea and Luncheon — which turns 15 this year — will be held Sunday, May 21, at Roseburg Community Hall on Washington State Route 4 in Roseburg, Washington.

Doors open at 11:30 a.m.; lunch will be served at 12:30 p.m., followed by a short program. Children must be accompanied by an adult.

Every year, the church selects a different theme; this year's is "What a Wonderful World."

There will be the usual "Pick Your Own Prize" raffle — tickets are $1 — and a silent auction. Both the raffle and auction will continue through the afternoon, with raffle prizes awarded at various times during the tea. Auction proceeds will be donated to the West End Food Bank.

The High Tea menu

includes fresh fruit, savories, veggies and dip, tea, punch and a special dessert plate.

Attendees are welcome to dress up or come casual. There will be a hat contest so attendees can wear a hat if they wish.

Suggested donation at the door is $8 per person. Children under 12 are $5.

For more information please call 360-465-2740 or 360-484-7749.
