The Daily Astorian

The Assistance League of the Columbia Pacific has announced that Mike Burk, manager of the Seaside Nike Factory Outlet Store, is the recipient of the Assistance League National Operation School Bell Award, given to honor those, who through significant financial, in kind or service support, have a direct and positive effect on Operation School Bell in the community.

One night every fall, the Assistance League takes over the Seaside Nike store for an evening of fun and shopping for 135 local middle and high school boys. Over the years, Burk and his team have been an important partner, working with the league to make "Nike Night" a great experience for everyone. To date, the league and Operation School Bell have clothed over 900 local boys and spent over $9,000.
