

'Grrrrrage' sale, bake sale benefit animal shelter

LONG BEACH, WASH. — The South Pacific County Humane Society is having its annual "Grrrrrage" sale from Friday, May 26, through Sunday, May 28, at the Long Beach Animal Shelter (330 Second St. N.E.). Friday and Saturday hours are 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sunday hours are 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

The shelter garage sale — which includes a bake sale this year — will be held in the shelter's annex, next to the shelter building. There will be new selections daily, organizers said.

In addition, the event will have fun activities for children, including face painting from noon to 4 p.m. Friday and Saturday.

People can still drop off donated items for the garage sale between 1 and 4 p.m. Thursday, May 25.

"Fundraisers are key to keeping our no-kill shelter open and the animals housed there well-cared for until they find their forever homes," the shelter said in a release.

The organizers have had to turn down some items to avoid losing profits by paying for a dumpster after the sale, they added. "We apologize for the inconvenience but need to keep as much of the cash we raise as possible."

For a list of donated items that the shelter would like to receive, call 360-642-1180 between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. through Saturday.

Manzanita book sale offers thousands of titles

MANZANITA — The North Tillamook Library is hosting its annual book sale Memorial Day weekend, on Friday, May 26, and Saturday, May 27.

The sale has become so large in recent years — offering thousands of donated books — that it's held at two locations: The Hoffman Center for the Arts (549 Laneda Ave.) and Pine Grove Community House three blocks away (225 Laneda Ave.).

"It's a yearlong effort sorting and categorizing donated books," said Ann Morgan, book sale coordinator and a Library Friend for nearly 25 years, in a release. "We always have a great selection of books to choose from."

The sale begins 5 to 7 p.m., Friday, May 26; members of the Friends of the Library get first crack at this year's selection, organizers said.

Nonmembers, have no fear: People can sign up the evening of the presale: $10 for an individual membership, $15 for a family.

On Saturday, May 27, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., the general public is invited to comb the shelves and tables for good deals on "gently used" books.

Book lovers, young and old, find plenty of titles to choose from at a previous book sale, the annual fundraiser for the North Tillamook Library.

The books at the Hoffman Center, across from the library, are non-fiction, including cookbooks, biographies, humor, nature, gardening, history, religion, self-help, reference, general interest and coffee table books.

Just down the street, at the Pine Grove Community House readers can find fiction: novels, mysteries, science fiction, poetry, romances and children's books.

Held every Memorial Day weekend, the book sale is the major fundraiser for the North Tillamook County Friends for maintenance of the North Tillamook Library in Manzanita.

More than 100 volunteers — from Wheeler, Nehalem and Manzanita — work to make the book sale a success, organizers wrote.
