or six for $5. Winners do not have to be present to win; the library will ship it anywhere in the world.

Founded in 1927, the library (131 N. Hemlock St.) is open noon to 5 p.m. Monday, Tuesday and Friday; noon to 6 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday; and 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday. It is closed Sundays.

For more information, visit cannonbeachlibrary.org or check out the library's Facebook page.

Sign up for box-making workshop

CANNON BEACH — Registration is open for "Folded Box Making," the second workshop in the Cannon Beach Arts Association's new weekly workshop series.

Led by artist Christine Trexel, the event will be held 10 a.m. to noon Saturday, May 27, at Tolovana Hall (3779 S. Hemlock St., Tolovana Park).

"Learn to make a simple yet elegant collapsible box ingeniously stabilized with its lid," organizers wrote. "This project will introduce you to basic cutting, folding and gluing techniques essential to all book-binding and box-making projects."

The workshop is $45 for association members, $65 for nonmembers. The class is limited to eight participants and requires booking ahead of time.

People can sign up at cannonbeacharts.org or by calling the gallery at 503-436-0744. Participants are welcome to preregister and pay at the event.

Composer of sacred music gives concert and workshop at St. Mary ASTORIA — Dan Schutte, a popular composer of sacred music for two generations, will perform in a special concert at St. Mary Star of the Sea Church (1491 Grand Ave.) at 7 p.m. Friday, May 26. Admission is free; donations are welcome.

This event will be followed by a workshop 9 a.m. to noon Saturday, May 27, at St. Mary Star of the Sea auditorium (1411 Grand Ave.).

At the workshop, Schutte, an author and musician, will give a presentation on Mystagogia, a "beautiful Easter celebration for the entire community, helping them experience the depths of the truths they have accepted in their Baptism, Confirmation, and in the Eucharist," organizers said. "The weeks after Easter are especially powerful ones. It's the time of Mystagogia, when we try to help each other experience the power and hope of the Easter mystery."

Steve Burke, a church volunteer, wrote, "Schutte's music has a special relationship to Catholic Masses, but his modern hymns are also loved and sung in mainline and evangelical Protestant churches."

Individual registration is $15 in advance, $20 at the door. Make checks payable to St. Mary Star of the Sea.

For more information on the concert and workshop, including group registration, call the church at 503-325-3671.
