CRAB DERBY RAISES MONEY FOR NORTH COAST WILDLIFE CENTER

A photo from a 2014 crab derby.

NEHALEM — The Jetty Fishery Crab Derby on Saturday, June 3, and Sunday, June 4, will raise money for the Wildlife Center of the North Coast in Astoria.

The annual derby, which coincides with a free fishing and crabbing weekend, raises funds and awareness for selected local charities. Along with the wildlife center, the event will benefit the Rockaway Beach Lions Club.

The wildlife center in Astoria specializes in seabird rehabilitation and provides professional medical care for local birds and mammals.

On Saturday, June 3, 26 Dungeness crabs caught commercially and labeled A through Z will be reintroduced to Nehalem Bay. Each marked crab corresponds with a donated gift prize, including one for a grand prize of $1,000 and a second worth $500.

The grand prizes will be donated to the charities if the designated crabs are not caught during the first day. Other prizes will be raffled off.

What's more, the event includes children's games, music and fresh seafood.

For more information, contact the Jetty Fishery Marine & RV Park (27550 U.S. Highway 101, Rockaway Beach) at 503-368-5746, or visit jettyfishery.com.
