ART WALK

June
10
5 to 8 p.m.

ASTORIA — Mingle with artists and friends, check out some cool exhibitions, and enjoy refreshments as downtown galleries and merchants take part in Astoria's Second Saturday Art Walk, 5 to 8 p.m. June 10 (some locations open and close earlier or later).

A painting by John Wecker at Old Town Framing Company

A piece by AVA artist-in-residence Andie Sterling

1. Astoria Art Loft

Ten artists from Knappa High School, all juniors, worked under glass mosaic artist, Kai Raden, to create original glass mosaics. The project was made possible by a grant from Astoria Visual Arts. (Our Art Walk event has a new time: 1 to 4 p.m.)

2. WineKraft

80 10th St. (Pier 11)
Featuring work by six local artists — and live music by The Swing Cats of Astoria starting at 7 p.m. — WineKraft is the perfect location to wrap up your art walking.

3. KALA @ Hipfish

1017 Marine Dr.
KALA will be taking a break from this month's Second Saturday Art Walk. The gallery will return for July's art walk with "Torn Apart," an exhibition by Sid Deluca.

4. Astoria Visual Arts (AVA) Artist-in-Residence

80 11th St. (above Edison Fish Market)
Presenting "Sointula" (a place of harmony), Agnes Field will show art relating to, and completed in, Finland. The work is a translation of experiences and ideas into visual work, and connections between heritage and place.

Also showing: Andie Sterling's current work. She will discuss her goals for her residency term and how AVA is supporting her work.

5. Astoria Vintage Hardware

1162 Marine Dr.
Astoria Mercantile, the featured artisan, started from a desire to hand-craft art for Vintage Hardware co-owner Becky Johnson's home and grew into an online shop. The business specializes in local and vintage wall art, and has created signs to celebrate our historic city.

6. Imogen Gallery

240 11th St.
Presenting Astoria artist Darren Orange in a solo show. Orange, a well-established painter, is known throughout the Pacific Northwest for his bold, gritty style. His paintings emulate the raw power of the region through abstract interpretations of landscape.

7. CARGO

240 11th St.
Find new delights to take with you on summer adventures — color, curiosity and collections for all.

8. Sea Gypsy

1001 Commercial St.
Showcasing new art created by the Sea Gypsy herself. Waves and beach scenes created on vintage windows and frames. These are made with beach glass, recycled blown glass, sand, shells and starfish.

Handcrafted wall art by Karen Jensen at Vintage Hardware

"White Rabbit Steals the Jeweled Crown," a ceramic and mixed-media sculpture by Jacqueline Hurlbert at RiverSea Gallery

9. The Fox and The Fawn

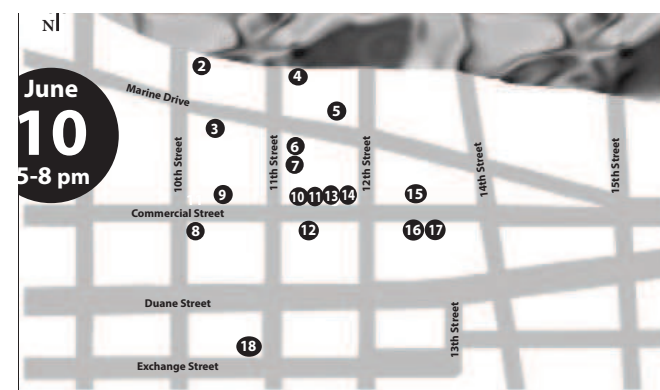

1008 Commercial St.
This upscale, resale boutique features a variety of reasonably priced new and gently worn clothing. Ayla DeCoraggio, the shop's owner, can provide patrons with style advice guaranteed to make them shine. Come enjoy the festivities while learning about the establishment's charity-of-the-month.

10. Forsythea Home & Garden Arts

1124 Commercial St.

"RiverSea Chess Dad," a photograph by David Lee Myers at RiverSea Gallery

Hosting artist Zemula Fleming in a solo show this month. Fleming's acrylic and beaded compositions exist on a fluid time line combining modern and historical context of women's portraits, infused with personality and expression.

11. Holly McHone Jewelry

1150 Commercial St.
A place for unique and individual custom-designed jewelry. Create something new with your own gemstones, or find out how Holly can be your personal diamond shopper.

12. Pat's Pantry

1153 Commercial St.
Each Art Walk, Pat's Pantry Spices and More will feature a culinary "artist" to enlighten and open a new experience to our guests. Stop by and see what we're cooking up.
