

50 YEARS OF THE ASTORIA SCANDINAVIAN MIDSUMMER FESTIVAL

Tradition!

This is what the Astoria Scandinavian Midsummer Festival is all about: The celebration of traditions and customs that our families brought to the U.S. from their homeland.

My family immigrated and kept their traditions and customs alive as did many other families from the five Scandinavian countries. I, along with many others, celebrate our ability to keep these traditions alive for ours and future generations to come.

Our beautiful festival is celebrating the amazing milestone of 50 years — 50 years of Danish, Finnish, Icelandic, Norwegian and Swedish entertainment, food, music, court members, anthems, volunteers and a multitude of memories to share with future generations.

I urge anyone who has been involved with the Astoria Scandinavian Midsummer Festival in years past to attend and see the wonderful festival our volunteers have put together for you to enjoy this year. It is also an invitation to those who have never experienced our festival to come and see what you have been missing all the years. You need not be Scandinavian to enjoy all that we have to offer! The volunteers have worked hard to put together a celebration of honoring the past with an eye on the future.

As the current festival chairperson, I welcome you to come and share the memories, renew old friendships, meet new friends and make new memories at an amazing festival centered on traditions old and new.

Come and take pride in your heritage, or experience the traditions of a culture new to you. Kiitos!
