THE DAILY ASTORIAN // QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Mary Marjolaine Bruer Truedson

Seaside

Dec. 10, 1922 — June 10, 2017

Mary Marjolaine Bruer Truedson, known by many as Marge, several by Granny T, some by Auntie M, and five by Mom, died in her sleep June 10, 2017, in Seaside, Oregon.

She was born to Faye and Henry Bruer in a logging camp in Kerry, Oregon, on Dec. 10, 1922, the wedding anniversary of her soon-to-be favorite uncle, Bill, who left his young wife that stormy night to drive a railroad handcar up the line to fetch the doctor in a driving snowstorm.

Marge grew up dividing her time between Clatsop and Columbia counties. She had one brother, Wesley Bruer, who preceded her in death in 2013.

She graduated from St. Helens High School in 1940, where she was well-known for her art and roller skating skills. She lived through the Great Depression, learning the value of "waste not, want not."

She married Carlton Purvis and together they had three children: Carla, Marcia and Mel. The marriage ended, and later she married Donald Truedson, and they had two more children: Patti and Paul.

Mary and Donald made their home in St. Helens. Donald worked at "the paper mill." Besides being a wife and mother, Marge painted, drew, sewed, crocheted and even worked for Carl Brandenfel of Brandenfel's Baldness Scalp Hair Care Health Beauty Toiletry. Marge didn't work for the infamous hair care division, she worked for Oregon Holly, gift baskets and parcels.

She made everything from "Kissing Balls," made from pine cones and mistletoe, to elaborate swags and baskets. She even made a few designs of her own. She and her coworkers often came away from work giggling, "probably from the glue."

After the last of her five children graduated from St. Helens High School and Donald retired, they sold their house and moved to Seaside, where Marge devoted a great deal of her time to painting. She took classes, joined the Trail's End Art Guild, and even had a small room in a co-op where she sold paintings, cards, rock people and sand dollar Christmas ornaments, among other things. She loved oil painting with brushes the best.

The couple traveled by air, rail, ship and car all across the U.S. mainland, Mexico and the Hawaiian Islands. Donald preceded Marge in death in 2006.

Marge is survived by her five children, and several grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and even a couple great-great grandchildren.

No funeral is scheduled. Any memorial donations may be made to the Alzheimer's Association.

Elizabeth May Lampien

Hillsboro

Dec. 1, 1933 — June 7, 2017

Elizabeth passed away in Hillsboro, Oregon. Elizabeth had lived in Seaside for the last 20 years.

She was born in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, to Harley and Sophia Wright. She was raised in the Catholic religion, and attended St. Frances Catholic School in Milwaukee until the age of 16. Her father then moved the family out of the city to a country farm, where she was to enjoy the farm life. There were dogs, cats and farm animals to keep her occupied and safe. Elizabeth was the seventh of 10 children, with six older brothers.

In 1955 her brother, Bob, introduced her to Donald Lampien, a guitar-playing country singer. They married in 1956. Don and Elizabeth worked and played hard. Elizabeth became the mother of five children, John, Sofie, Irene, David and Carol. Don and Elizabeth traveled across the U.S. numerous times before settling in the Pacific Northwest in 1968. By 1975, Elizabeth and her family lived in Seaside. One job she enjoyed was the time she spent working for the Seaside Hospital as a housekeeper. She also worked as a bartender in local bars and taverns, where she loved to visit with people. Elizabeth worked for a time with a senior citizens travel group, planning and helping with trips to Reno and other fun destinations. Elizabeth was very involved with the Women of the Moose in Seaside, and was proud to have been their senior regent. She had a great smile, and loved people.

Elizabeth was preceded in death by her husband, Donald Lampien; her son, David Lampien; and her grandson, Joshua Lampien.

She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Kenneth (Lyda) Detert of Fond du Lac, Wisconsin; a sister in-law, Carol Lampien of Milwaukee, Wisconsin; a son, Donald Lampien (Lois) of Milwaukee, Wisconsin; a son, John Lampien (Ruth) of Toledo, Washington; a daughter, Sofie Burke (Steve) of Seaside; a daughter, Irene Veelle of Seaside; a daughter, Carol Read of San Antonio, Texas; her grandchildren, Theresa Stanley, Darrell McClure, Andrew Lampien, David Lampien, Daniel Veelle, Jacob Burke, Stephanie Stevenson, Kristin Blankenship, Christopher Lampien, Dustin Lampien, Tiffany Stacey and Amanda Miller; and 21 great-grandchildren.

A service will be held at 3 p.m. Saturday, June 17, 2017, at Our Saviour's Lutheran Church in Seaside, Oregon.

Geraldine J. Quimby

Astoria

Aug. 28, 1920 — May 20, 2017

Geraldine J. Quimby, 96, died on May 20, 2017, in Longview Hospice Clinic.

Geraldine was born on Aug. 28, 1920, in Ballard, Washington, to Lancelot Fothergill and Minnie (Yonke) Fothergill. At age 5, Geraldine lost her father to heart failure. The family then moved to Conrad, Montana, where her mom met and married Harrison Belew. At age 9, Geraldine's mom gave birth to a baby sister, Irene.

A few years later the family moved to Kila, Montana, outside Kalispell, Montana, where Geraldine attended Kila Elementary, and then graduated from Flathead County High School in Kalispell.

After school, Geraldine met and married Ray Quimby from Columbia Falls, Montana. The couple lived and worked in the area for several years, during which time they had three children. The family then embarked on a life of travel throughout the Western states, following Ray's career of construction with various power-line companies.

Geraldine was an accomplished seamstress, knitter and quilter. Every birthday and Christmas had special gifts for all, "handmade by Mom." Her favorite pastime was growing flowers, and her "green thumb" produced beautiful African violets and roses. One violet given to her as a "start" is still growing after 20 years.

Geraldine is survived by her children, Alan (Kace) of Svensen, Oregon, RaeAnn Quimby of Huntersville, North Carolina, and Connie Westerholm of Brownsmead, Oregon; a sister, Irene Loveless of Libby, Montana; four grandsons, Shane Quimby (Tammie) of Prineville, Oregon, Jared Greiner (Pam) of Huntersville, North Carolina, Gerritt Westerholm (Shannon) of Svensen, Oregon, and Jason Westerholm (Tiffany) of Gresham, Oregon; a granddaughter, Desiree Freitag of Spokane, Washington; a nephew, Dennis Loveless, of Helena, Montana; and several great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents and her husband of 67 years.

Geraldine will be dearly missed, never losing her sense of humor and amazing memory.

Per her wishes, there will be no service and private interment will be held in Kalispell, Montana.

Special thanks to the doctors and nurses of St. Johns Hospital in Longview, Washington, who cared for her with such gentleness and dignity. Also thanks to the Longview Hospice Center for their care, as well.

Caldwell's Luce-Layton Mortuary was in charge of the final arrangements.

A donation may be made to the charity of one's choice.
