

OBITUARIES

Paul Reid Gillum

Astoria
June 22, 1949 — June 18, 2017

Paul Reid Gillum was born on June 22, 1949, to Pastor Donald and Mildred Gillum in Chicago, Illinois. Paul moved with his family to Grandview, Washington, and Milton-Freewater, Oregon, finally settling in Astoria. Paul completed his schooling in Astoria and graduated from high school in 1967.

In 1972, Paul married Jo Abing of Astoria, where they later raised their son, James.

Paul was preceded in death by his father, mother and sister, Barbara Bancroft. Strong in faith, Paul used his love of the Lord to guide him in helping all those who asked for it, and never asked for anything in return.

This is shown by the many hats Paul wore, including his service to our country in the U.S. Marine Corps from September 1968 to September 1974. He received several awards, including the Vietnam Service Medal with one star and the Combat Action Ribbon, while serving his country in the Vietnam War.

After concluding his service with the Marine Corps, he sought and gained employment with Medix Ambulance, and completed training as a paramedic. During his tenure with Medix, Paul volunteered as a reserve officer with the Astoria Police Department for several years, and attained the rank of lieutenant in the reserves.

In 1979, Paul gained full time employment with the Astoria Police Department as a police officer. During his 27 years of faithful and honorable service to the citizens of Astoria, Paul was decorated twice with the Medal of Valor for choosing to put himself in serious harm while protecting the lives of local citizens. In addition to serving as a patrol officer and detective for the Astoria Police Department, Paul was a sworn deputy U.S. Marshal in 1989, which allowed him and the city of Astoria's police to patrol federal properties.

Also serving in the capacity as the law enforcement liaison for several Hollywood productions that were filmed in Clatsop County, Paul was involved with the safety and security of the filming of "The Goonies," "Come See the Paradise," "Short Circuit" and "Kindergarten Cop." Another bit of Astoria's history was that Arctic Circle was co-owned by Paul and his wife, Jo, and Dick and Paula Carey.

After his retirement from Astoria Police in 2006, Paul was asked to help the Clatsop County Sheriff's Office as a transport deputy. His faith in the Lord was his guide to become a church deacon at the Lewis and Clark Bible Church. Service to his community continued with his election to the Clatsop Community College Board of Directors. In 2015, the Oregon Community College Association presented Paul with a dedicated service award for 16 consecutive years of leadership.

His love and drive to be an accomplished fine artist began during his youth. Paul took classes with local artist Don Van Velzer and became adept at form, foundation and function. Later, under the tutelage of sculptor Stanley Wanlass, Paul became extremely accurate and proficient in the art of producing lost wax bronze sculptures. While his pieces of bronze art can be found in many institutions, one of his finest works was his restoration of Astoria's Centennial fountain. The restored fountain is a legacy piece that now marks Astoria's Bicentennial, and is located in the Maritime Memorial Park in Astoria's Uniontown.

Paul was a loving husband, father, father-in-law, brother and mentor to many who knew him.

Paul leaves his light shining upon his wife Jo, son James, daughter-in-law Laura, brother Tim, and foster brother John Hurt.

There will be a memorial service at Lewis and Clark Bible Church, 35082 Seppa Road, Astoria, Oregon, on Saturday, July 8, 2017, at 11 a.m. A potluck lunch reception at the church will immediately follow the service, with an opportunity for those who wish to share memories and stories of Paul. We are highly encouraging those who served with Paul at the Astoria Police Department, Medix Ambulance and Clatsop Community College to attend.

Jacqueline Lavae' Sweeney

Sisters
Jan. 8, 1951 — June 12, 2017

Jacqueline Lavae' Sweeney, born Jan. 8, 1951, in Hot Springs, South Dakota, to Marion June Perrault and William Joseph Sweeney, passed away June 12, 2017.

Jacie grew up in Seaside, Oregon, and graduated from Seaside High School in 1969. Jacie was an all-star student in high school. In 1969, she was one of three students from Seaside High School who was chosen as Outstanding Teenager of America. Also in 1969, she was a contestant in the Miss Seaside pageant.

She was student body secretary, and loved being a cheerleader and playing powder puff football. She was Snow Ball princess, involved in the pep club, GAA, student body treasurer, junior-senior prom princess, involved in girls' league, homecoming queen and involved in the mock Republican convention.

Jacie was a person loved by students, teachers and all. She excelled in kindness, and was always there to lend a hand when it was needed. Jacie, being the oldest of four, had the responsibility of setting the example and making sure her younger sister and brothers didn't end up in jail like their Grandpa Buck.

Jacie spent many years working for Bob and Marianne Poole at the Seaside and Astoria Pig 'N Pancake.

After graduating from Seaside High School she went on to Lane Community College, and graduated with an associate of arts degree on June 12, 1971. She then went on to the University of Oregon to study liberal arts. She loved the Oregon Ducks, and being a big fan, when the Duck games were on TV she would get her pompons and Duck whistle out, cheering on the Ducks, always a cheerleader.

After her third year of college she met, and then married Steve Erickson from Manzanita, having two sons, Kyle Erickson and Anthony James Erickson.

Jacie eventually moved to Astoria and opened up her own business called Balloonatics, which she operated for several years. She also volunteered for the Woman's Crisis Center for several years.

While in Astoria, she met Oscar Lizotte.

Jacqueline Sweeney

They moved to Bend, Oregon in 1994, and again started a new business called Sweeney's Creamery, which Jacie and Oscar operated for several years before moving to Folsom, California, in 1997. She purchased a maid agency and called it Jacqueline's Maids, where she worked for 20 years. It was the largest house cleaning business in Placer County.

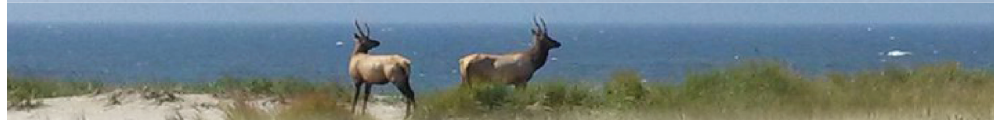

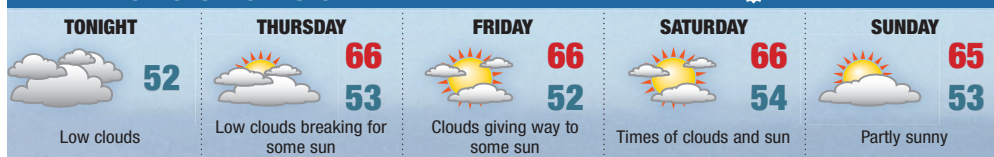

In 2016, Jacie and Oscar moved to Sisters, Oregon, to be closer to family, where she lost her battle with Alzheimer's on June 12, 2017. Jacie was loved deeply by her family and many friends. We will miss her, and look forward to giving her a hug when we see her again.

Jacie is survived by her partner, Oscar Lizotte; a son, Anthony James Erickson, daughter-in-law Lizzette, grandson Mathew and granddaughter Kayla; a sister, Cassie Sweeney and her husband, Phil Warmbrodt, and nephews Todd Perrigo and his wife, Jennifer, Tyler Perrigo and Nick Warmbrodt, and nieces Scheris Schuring and Elle Harris; a brother, Keith Sweeney and his wife, Leigh, and nephews, Dalton Moehnke, Christopher Corder and his wife, Nina, and Shane Sweeney and his wife, Jasmine; a brother, Bill Sweeney and his wife, Linda, and nephew Zackary Sweeney and his wife, Dionne, and niece Ashley Holzouser and her husband, Micah. Also part of the family is Sarah Perrigo. Jacie is survived by 15 great-nieces and nephews.

Jacie was preceded in death by a son, Kyle Erickson, a grandpa, Buck Perrault, a grandma, Vi Moliter, a grandpa, George Sweeney, a grandma, Zelma Sweeney, her mother, June Young, her father, William Sweeney, her stepfather, Jim Young, an uncle, Jimmy Sweeney Sr., an aunt, Dorothy Sweeney and an uncle, Keith Perrault.

Church services will be held at Our Saviour's Lutheran Church, located at 320 First Ave., in Seaside, on July 8, 2017, starting at 11 a.m. Following, there will be a reception at the Seaside American Legion, located at 1315 Broadway in Seaside. Donations may be made to the Alzheimer's Association or Hospice of Redmond, Oregon.

Astoria Police search for suspect in robbery of pizza delivery driver

One man already arrested

By JACK HEFFERNAN
The Daily Astorian

One man was arrested while another is still at large after a pizza delivery driver allegedly was robbed Tuesday night.

The two men reportedly manhandled the driver and stole an undisclosed amount of cash after he approached the entrance to the 18 Spruce Road home at about 8 p.m. No one is living at the home currently, though one of the suspects had previously resided there.

Hart Holden Stone, 20, of Astoria, was arrested shortly after the incident and charged with first-degree robbery and first-degree burglary. The second subject has not been found.

The at-large suspect was last seen running away from the house toward Nimitz Drive wearing Adidas clothing and black shorts with white stripes. He is described as heavy-set and about 5 feet 6 inches tall with dark hair. The man has been described as a Hispanic or dark-skinned white male adult.

Anyone with information about the incident or the suspect can contact Astoria Police Detective Ken Hansen at 503-325-4411 or khansen@astoria.or.us.
