

Summer art activities for children

ASTORIA — Hear ye! Hear ye! Hear ye! Children from ages 5 through 9:

Create art from recycled objects at the Astoria Art Loft from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. every Thursday afternoon in July — that is, July 6, 13, 20 and 27.

Bring egg cartons, milk jugs, plastic bottles, old greeting cards and other treasures and turn them into something wonderful, beautiful and useful.

Other supplies, including paint and paper, will be provided by the Art Loft. The fee for the art activities is $20 per session.

Since opportunities to make art in schools is limited, the activities may continue on Thursdays in August and after school starts, though later in the day.

Camp teaches dance students new tricks

WARRENTON — All North Coast Dance students are invited to attend Little Ballet Theatre's annual summer workshop, Monday and Tuesday, July 10 and 11, in Warrenton, at the Maddox Dance Studio.

Classes will be taught by members of the Northwest Dance Company, founded and directed by Portland's Greta Josephson, a native Astorian, graduate of Astoria High School, former Blazer Dancer, and conductor of dance camps for high school and dance studios all over the Pacific Northwest.

The schedule is designed for students age 8 through high school, and will cover ballet, jazz and lyrical dance styles, along with seminars in stage makeup, dance tricks and other subjects.

Classes will be held 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. each day. Students need to bring customary dance clothes, shoes and a sack lunch.

Call Maddox Dance Studio at 503-861-1871 to reserve space. Make checks of $120 payable to Little Ballet Theatre, Inc.
